MR. JOEL MARGOLIS OF THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS

★ ★ ★

As usual, there would have been no show tonight but for the help of a number of old and new friends. We are especially indebted to:

MR. SOL SHAPIRO of the William Morris Agency.

MR. STANLEY ADAMS, President; MR. JAMES S. RULE, Director of Public Affairs, and MR. EDWARD J. SHEA, Regional Executive Director, Nashville, of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

MR. HAL C. DAVIS, President of the American Federation of Musicians.

MR. E. W. WENDELL, General Manager, and MR. EDWARD H. STONE, Manager of Public Relations, of Opryland USA at Nashville.

MR. JAMES L. LOAKES, Vice President of BetFord Corp., representing Tennessee Ernie Ford.

THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS, for temporarily waiving MR. JOEL MARGOLIS to coach our team.

We also gratefully acknowledge the cooperation of the Performer's Unions through THEATRE AUTHORITZ, of which MISS BEVERLY ROBERTS is Executive Secretary.

Journalism Prizes

Merriman Smith Memorial Award

Presented annually since 1972, this $500 prize is awarded for excellence in presidential news coverage under deadline pressure in the tradition of the late Merriman Smith, United Press International White House Correspondent.

Raymond Clapper Memorial Awards

These awards — $750 first prize and $250 second prize — have been presented annually since 1944. Entries are not limited to any one field. The only standard is excellence in the tradition of Raymond Clapper, Scripps-Howard correspondent who died in a 1944 plane crash while serving as a war correspondent in the Pacific.

Worth Bingham Memorial Award

A $1000 prize for newspaper or magazine reporting that investigates and analyzes situations of national significance in the Washington political community, this award has been presented each year since 1967 in memory of journalist Robert Worth Bingham.
