MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

SECRET/NODIS/XGDS

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of State and Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
Lt. General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME: Thursday, May 29, 1975

PLACE:

Kissinger: Demirel is in a tough position because Ecevit has all the leftists. And Erbakan is a wild man.

Caglayanil told me they would go to great lengths to make progress in Brussels.

President: Is he from Demirel's party?

Kissinger: Yes. [described the Turkish parties] Ecevit wants a new election. Demirel wants to wait until his economic program gets going. We can trust Demirel. He is a good friend--Ecevit less so.
Caglayanil promised, and when they promise they deliver.

President: I like Demirel -- there's no bullshit with him.

Kissinger: And they can't get into their heads why there is an embargo on them.

President: We can't agree to Greek aid before the embargo lifts.

Kissinger: Our compromise would be to drop the grant and continue the sales. That would give Brademas a face-saver.

The record of schedule

K Demirel in tough position cause Ercan has all the leftists, and Ercan is a wild man.
Only way it could move was they would go to meet
Demirel to make progress in Brussels.

P Is he from Demirel party?

K Yes. (Demirel's party). Ercan wants an election. Demirel wants to wait till his own party gets going. Lets see that Demirel has a personal friend - Ercan has son Cayhan promised - & when they promise they election

P I like Demirel - no BS.

K And they can't get into their heads why a embargo.

P We can agree to a aid before embargo lifts

K Our companies would be to charge grant + continue sale.
That would give Brader as a face saver.
