

Thank you for your interest in hosting your event at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library or Museum.
Please review this information which explains how to get started reserving space.

HOW TO GET STARTED RESERVING EVENT SPACE

Choose location for event:

- For reserving space at the Ford Presidential Library (Ann Arbor, MI), please call (734) 205-0555.
- For reserving space at the Ford Presidential Museum (Grand Rapids, MI), please call (616) 254-0400.

Review the Permit Application:

- We will provide an application packet which explains the requirements and guidelines for hosting an event at either the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library or the Museum. The application packet is also available on-line at www.fordlibrarymuseum.gov.
- Thoroughly review the application packet and read Conditions of Use (OMB Control No. 3095-0024), and the accompanying NA Form 16011, "Application and Permit for Use of Space in Presidential Libraries and Grounds."

Schedule a visit to the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library or Museum:

- We suggest a scheduled visit to view the facility spaces and discuss the details of your event with the appropriate Library or Museum staff. Any event plans must conform to Library/Museum rules and procedures, as well as all state and federal fire, safety, and security regulations.

Submit the Facility Rental Agreement:

- The completed application packet must be submitted to the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library or Museum for approval and signature. These forms are required to confirm and reserve your event date.
- Please note: Payment for rentals must be paid in full before or on the date of the event.

For questions concerning your event at the Library, contact the Special Events Coordinator at (734) 205-0555.
For questions concerning your event at the Museum, contact the Special Events Coordinator at (616) 254-0400.

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library or Museum auditoriums, conference rooms, and public spaces are available for ceremonies, receptions, and dinners, as well as lectures, seminars, meetings, and similar educational activities when authorized by the Director or Deputy Director. These activities shall not interfere with the normal operations of either facility, and must be consistent with the public perception of the Library or Museum as an educational, research, or cultural institution. Religious, personal, commercial, profit-making, political fundraisers or sales activities are not permitted. No auctions, raffles, or registration fees collected at the door, sales promotion of goods and/or services, or cash bars are allowed on site. The Library and Museum do not host anniversary or birthday parties, proms, or weddings.

Please be advised that the Library and Museum reserve the right to cancel any scheduled rental of the facility due to a federal/national event, acts of God, or national emergency.

FEE STRUCTURE

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library and Museum are part of the National Archives and Records Administration, and use of the facilities and grounds at both locations are governed by federal rules and regulations.

The fee(s) for renting the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library or Museum are as follows:

| Organization Type | Facility Use Rate |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| For-Profit | $1,000 |
| Non-Profit or U of M | $600 |

1. The Library (Ann Arbor, MI), is open from 8:45 AM to 4:45 PM, Monday through Friday.
The Museum (Grand Rapids, MI), is open from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Monday through Friday.
2. Events may be scheduled to begin before regular business hours or in the evening after regular business hours with the Director's approval. If your event extends beyond the scheduled ending time as indicated in your contract, you will be charged an additional fee at the rate of $25.00 per quarter hour.
3. These fees cover the normal expenses for security, staffing, and utilities at the Library/Museum. Any negligent damage to the Library/Museum or its contents or equipment will bring additional charges to be determined by the Director. Extraordinary costs of cleanup, or special services and equipment will be your responsibility. If Museum exhibit access is desired, or if you would like the Museum Gift Shop open during your event, an additional security fee will be added.
4. Please call the desired location should you have any questions.
Library (Ann Arbor, MI): (734) 205-0555.
Museum (Grand Rapids, MI): (616) 254-0400.

APPLICATION AND PERMIT FOR USE OF SPACE IN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARIES AND GROUNDS

CONDITIONS OF USE

LIBRARY PROVISIONS: The library director or deputy director may assess additional charges to reimburse the Government for expenses incurred as a result of the use by groups of library facilities. Each library: (1) sets its own schedule for size of donation and its own timetable for reservations, payments, and refunds; (2) decides what times are available for outside events; and (3) determines the number of people allowed for various outside events. In addition to the conditions listed here, which apply to all Presidential libraries, each library may impose conditions that apply to only that library.

PROHIBITIONS: Use of the auditoriums and other public spaces will not be authorized for any profit making, commercial advertising and sales, partisan political, sectarian, or similar purpose. No admission fee will be charged except by the library, no indirect assessment fees will be made for admission, and no collections will be taken. Organizations are prohibited from representing, implying, or suggesting in their invitations, publicity, or otherwise that the library endorses, sponsors, or in any way approves of the organization. Smoking is prohibited inside all NARA facilities, including library buildings; smoking outside is permitted only in certain designated areas.

PRE-APPROVAL REQUIRED: The following must be approved in advance by the library: (1) media coverage; (2) speakers, performers, movies, or programs (other than those included in the library program); (3) decorations that are fastened to any part of the building by any means; and (4) the serving of alcoholic beverages. Sponsoring organizations and their designated contractors must review their plans with library staff; and the plans must conform to library rules and procedures and to pertinent fire, safety, and security regulations. Events which do not receive library approval will be canceled or altered to meet library requirements.

LIMITATIONS: Access to the facility shall be limited to the specific areas designated in the permit including restrooms, auditorium and cafeteria. Nothing shall impede access to the library building. The following may only be done in designated areas: (1) food preparation; (2) food and drink consumption; and (3) parking.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE APPLICANT: (1) The sponsoring organization is responsible for the entire clean-up operation, including the removal of trash from the premises immediately following the event. Library dumpsters may not be used. (2) The sponsoring organization is responsible for any damage to the library by event participants, contractors, and caterers. The library must be returned to its original condition. (3) The sponsoring organization should not have anything delivered to the library unless a representative of the organization is at the library to accept the delivery. Library staff do not sign for or in any other way assume responsibility for property belonging to the applicant, the caterer, or any other individual or organization involved in the event. (4) Organizations using the library facilities, caterers, and other contractors hired by such organizations, must follow the instructions from library staff regarding schedules for delivery and set-up.

The library reserves the right to withdraw approval of any use of a library building up to 30 days before the date(s) of the event. If, in any way, the Permittee or any of his or her representatives fails to comply with the above conditions, the program may be cancelled and the sponsoring organization may be held responsible for any and all costs to the Presidential library.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK TO PERMITTEE PROPERTY: Permittee assumes the risk of any loss or damage to its property or the property of any person or entity authorized by it to be on the Library premises. The Library, and its officers, agents, and employees shall not be responsible or liable for any loss of or damage to, property while on the premises, regardless of how the loss or damage is sustained.

INDEMNIFICATION AND HOLD HARMLESS: Permittee agrees to conduct its activities upon the premises so as not to endanger any person thereon; and further agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Library and the United States against any and all claims, costs or expenses, or loss, injury, or damage to any persons or property, regardless of how the loss or damage is caused, arising out of the activities conducted by Permittee, its contractors, subcontractors, agents, members, or guests, including but not limited to claims of employees of Permittee, or Permittee's contractors, subcontractors, or guests.

FORCE MAJEURE: Neither Party will have any liability to the other Party for any delay or failure to perform, in whole or in part, or for any cancellation in connection with performance of any obligations hereunder, if such failure or cancellation is due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including, but not limited to, acts of God, war, riots, civil disturbances, fires, floods, strikes, terrorist acts or credible threat of same, lock-outs, labor disputes, failures in public supply of utilities or any other causes beyond the control of the Parties, whether similar or dissimilar to the foregoing.

ASSIGNMENT OF INTERESTS; ENTIRETY: Neither Party may assign its rights nor delegate its duties. These conditions of use constitutes the entire understanding of the Parties with respect to the matters addressed herein, and it supersedes and replaces any prior or contemporaneous documents, correspondence, conversations, agreements, and other written or oral understandings. Additional agreements may govern food and beverage vendors related to the Permittee's event.

Revocation: NARA may revoke this License at any time by giving written notice.

Governing Law and Certifications: Each of the individuals signing this Permit Application certifies that he/she has legal authority to bind his/her Party to these Conditions of Use. These Conditions of Use will be governed by and in accordance with the laws of the United States (without regard to conflicts of laws).

All thirteen of the National Archives Presidential Libraries and Museums are handicapped accessible. However, organizations requiring special access for the mobility impaired are encouraged to notify the libraries in advance of their events.

APPLICATION AND PERMIT FOR USE OF SPACE IN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARIES AND GROUNDS

INSTRUCTIONS: Type or print in ink all items and sign. Also sign the "Application for Permission to Serve Alcoholic Beverages" form if you plan to serve alcohol. Please submit with this application a copy, sample, or description of any material or item proposed for distribution or display. Any special services for the disabled must be provided by the sponsor. (All Presidential Libraries are handicapped accessible.) See Paperwork Reduction Act Public Burden Statement on the reverse.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVICE
Conditions of Use

1. Food and beverage may be served during events and receptions. Food and beverage service may be personally or professionally catered. You are responsible for making the catering arrangements. If professional caterers are used, you must insure that the caterer has a current state catering license. Please include the caterer's name and telephone number on the application form or give this information to the Library or Museum staff before your event.
2. You and the caterers are responsible for the entire set up of your event, the provision of tables, chairs, ice, and other items. (A small number of the Library and Museum tables and chairs are available for your use.) Use of candles or balloons is not permitted.
3. You are allowed to bring materials into the Library or Museum any time on the day of the event. All materials must be removed by the following morning. All items should be carried in or brought in on carts to prevent marring the floors. Organizations or caterers must provide their own carts.
4. For an evening event, you may begin to set up in the Library or Museum lobby after 3:00 PM on the day of the event. Plan to remove or fold up all tables and other items in public areas immediately after the event.
5. Eating and drinking are permitted in the lobby, auditorium, and conference rooms A and B at the Ann Arbor location. Eating and drinking are permitted in the lobby and the Michigan Room at the Grand Rapids location. Care should be taken that all Library or Museum furniture is adequately protected. It is the responsibility of the sponsoring organization to ensure that no glasses, plates, or other items are placed on any exhibit cases.
6. Food should be prepared in the kitchen area. Prior approval is required if catering services intend to use the Library auditorium (Ann Arbor location) for food preparation. No open flame for food preparation is allowed anywhere; however, Sterno® is permitted.
7. You may request permission to serve beer or wine by completing and submitting the APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO SERVE ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES. No event may dispense alcohol without written permission from the Director of the Library or Deputy Director of the Museum. Event organizers should discuss their proposed plans in detail with the appropriate Library and Museum personnel. Alcoholic beverages are permitted in an open bar setting only, and cash bars or ticket systems for alcoholic beverages are prohibited. The serving of alcohol must cease one-half hour prior to the end of the event. Liquor service must conform to the City of Ann Arbor (Library location), the City of Grand Rapids (Museum location), and State of Michigan regulations.

APPLICATION FOR PERMISSION TO SERVE ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

The Permittee agrees to comply with all state and local laws and ordinances in effect in the location of the planned event governing the serving or use of alcoholic beverages. The Permittee further agrees not to serve or allow the serving of alcoholic beverages to anyone under the legal drinking age established in the location of the planned event, or to serve or allow the serving of alcoholic beverages to anyone intoxicated or displaying signs of intoxication.

The Permittee shall indemnify and save harmless the United States, its agents and employees against any and all loss, damage, claim, or liability whatsoever, due to personal injury or death, or damage to property of others directly or indirectly due to the negligence of the Permittee, or any other act or omission of the Permittee, including failure to comply with any terms, conditions, or obligations imposed on the Permittee by the Permit to use the space or by approval of this Application for Permission to Serve Alcoholic Beverages.

REQUEST FOR AUDIO-VISUAL EQUIPMENT AND SERVICES

The Library and Museum have a variety of audio-visual equipment and supplies. The following list outlines what is available to request for audio-visual equipment and related items.

A representative from your organization shall be responsible for operating the audio-visual equipment for your presentation (DVD, PowerPoint, etc.). It will be your responsibility to have your representative trained to use the Library's or Museum's equipment before your event. This training must be done during normal Library or Museum operating hours. We require a preview of your presentation set-up and materials prior to the event. Notify the Library or Museum as soon as you are aware of any changes in these program needs. The Library or Museum cannot be responsible for the set-up of equipment if changes are made less than 24 hours preceding the event.

Any special services or equipment (e.g., AV, lighting) not available through the Library or Museum will be your responsibility and cost. Please note: Wireless is available at both the Library and Museum, but must be requested and approved 30 days prior to usage. Include the total number of devices that will require wireless connection.

Please mark the appropriate spaces if you are requesting the following equipment or services.
(Reminder: you must have a representative trained to use the equipment before your event.)

In accordance with NARA policy, parties wishing to videotape or broadcast their event must first secure permission from the Ford Presidential Library. In addition, the Ford Presidential Library reserves the right to photograph, videotape, or audiotape the event and proceedings for the purposes of documenting our own institutional history and reporting to our stakeholders.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

EVENT PARKING

Library Event Parking (Ann Arbor, MI)

The Ford Library does not provide rental event parking during regular business hours (Monday-Friday, 8:45 AM – 4:45 PM) except for event coordinators and their service providers. The University of Michigan's Parking and Transportation Services (PTS) Department offers Special Events Parking Coordination services to assist guests and visitors attending events at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library. We suggest event coordinators provide parking stickers for the university lot directly across from the Ford Library (Blue Lot NC8) located off Beal Avenue and Fuller Road. Event organizers should contact PTS Customer Services at (734) 764-7530 no later than two weeks prior to their event. A "Request for Special Parking" form is available on the Public Transportation Services website at <http://pts.umich.edu> and should be completed and submitted. Paid visitor parking is available in the Red Lot (located in the far west section of Blue Lot NC8).

Event and program attendees may park without permit and free in the Library staff lot (35 parking spaces) anytime after 5 PM, Monday-Friday. Handicap parking is available. Free parking is also available after 5 PM in the Blue Lot NC8, located directly across from the Library at Beal Avenue and Fuller Road.

Museum Event Parking (Grand Rapids, MI).

Free parking is available at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Museum for both day and evening events and programs. There are 102 parking spaces in the South Lot, and additional free parking in the North Lot. Handicap parking is available.

COMPUTER AND TELEPHONE USE

The Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library (Ann Arbor, MI) is not connected to the University of Michigan computer or telephone network. Public access to the National Archives computer or telephone network is prohibited. Please be aware that wireless is available at both the Library and Museum, but must be requested and approved 30 days prior to usage. Include the total number of devices that will require wireless connection.
