MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: STU SPENCER

SUBJECT: WEEKLY REPORT # 36 - Week Ending 2, 1976

GENERAL CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION

Rog Morton took over the Chairmanship of the PFC on Friday, April 2nd, at 12:00 noon. He brought over with him Roy Hughes, who will take over as Deputy Chairman for Administration from Bob Marik.

Dave Owen was named Plains States Director for the PFC on April 1st. Lloyd Hooper, who has been Dave's assistant will assume the responsibilities of Regional Coordinator for the Plains States.

A speaker phone has been installed in Peter Kaye's office so that the PFC can monitor Ron Nessen's press conferences.

STATE CAMPAIGN ORGANIZATION

ALASKA An indepth report on this state will be forthcoming next week.

ARIZONA The most recent results of the March County Conventions show: Ford 243, Reagan 370, Uncommitted 43. The remaining delegates will be selected this week and Reagan should have a 60-40 edge on us into the April 24th state convention.

This adverse situation also reflects a consolidation and major effort headed by John Conlan to control the state party and is not strictly a Ford-Reagan contest.

CALIFORNIA There are county chairmen and steering committees in 37 of the state's 57 counties, with some form of partial organization established in 14 of the remaining 20.

A total of 60,000 volunteer recruitment mailings have been sent out, and 31 private receptions have been held in the state to recruit workers. A statewide telephone program has been developed with 19 of the 20 phone bank locations established. Leadership has been identified in 17 of these centers.

A total of 37 newspapers have been contacted in the press tour, whose active participants have included Evelle Younger, Dennis Carpenter, Pete McCloskey.

COLORADO Several PFC County Chairmen here have reported some complacency within their organizations despite the North Carolina results. The state organization will need shortly to discuss this problem.

Our organization in Denver County has established chairmen in all the legislative districts, and are now concentrating in the precinct level according to priority. Newsletters announcing these organizational appointments have been sent out here and in Adams and Larimer Counties.

The Reagan organization has named Fred Stefens, a YR official, as their Larimer County Chairman.

HAWAII We are strong here, with a current delegate strength of 18 out of 19, and a possibility of winning the final delegates in the caucus meeting. Reagan has no formal organization here.

IDAHO State Chairman Roy Eiguren was in Washington last week to discuss the state organization and primary ballot listing, and to request that you visit the state sometime prior to the primary.

INDIANA There is a home phone operation underway in Indiana, and it is important that the campaign here increase its visibility. This becomes important because press accounts here have indicated that the Reagan organization plans a major effort here.

MAINE We have 13 of 16 county chairmen and 2 Congressional District Chairmen in place. Letters and telephone calls are planned to begin this week to all the delegates to the state convention as they are selected.

The 200 mile fishing limit continues as the dominant state issue.

MICHIGAN Meetings were held this week attended by primary states coordinator Skip Watts, Regional Coordinator John Holt, and State PFC Chairman Peter Fletcher. There are 63 out of 83 county chairmen and 18 of 19 district chairmen in place, and the overall campaign effort is underway.

Governor Milliken has offered his support for our efforts in the state, and at the time there are plans for a direct mail and home phone effort.

MISSOURI Meetings were held this week to discuss organization strategy and timing for both the St. Louis area and districts outside the city. Governor Bond has been busy organizing local mass meetings to elect pro-Ford Congressional District and state convention delegates.

Some difficulties have arisen regarding efforts within the state to elect pro-Ford slates that are also anti-Bond. To avoid the possibility of two Ford slates at each meeting, which would dilute our strength, the formation of a representative "state committee" has been proposed. This situation is being carefully supervised.

Two mailings are planned. The first will be sent by Governor Bond to his supporters containing his endorsement of your candidacy as well as a call for his workers to support Ford delegates. A second letter urging support will be signed jointly by Governor Bond and Gene McNary, and sent to state GOP mailing list of approximately 7,800 names

MONTANA Qualified petitions for both Ford and Reagan have been received as required in order for their names to be put on the primary ballot. Press releases were sent out announcing the formation of both the Senior Citizens for Ford and Physicians for Ford organization.

NEW MEXICO Our organization here is outstanding, and the Reagan people have acknowledged that this is our strongest southwestern state. We now have approximately 19 out of 21 delegates.

Joseph Skeen, a past gubernatorial candidate, has been offered the job of state convention coordinator.

NEVADA There is some negative effect here resulting from the elimination of Federal funds for tourism as it is an important industry.

Current strength estimates give Reagan a 55%-45% lead, with Senator Lexalt's organization making it difficult for us to attract workers. We are basing a voter control program on a home phone system, and it is felt a visit by you or your wife at an appropriate time before the primary may help enormously in giving us the advantage.

OHIO Mr. Reagan has qualified for only 14 of the 23 districts in Ohio, due to failures to file petitions properly. He has not qualified at all for the at-large delegates.

OREGON Our headquarters opening in both Portland and Eugene were very successful, and our organization here is well run. Current delegate and convention strength is estimated at 60-40 in our favor.

Timber clear cutting is an important state issue here.

A phone bank campaign in Portland will start this week, and it has already been staffed fully with volunteers.

Reagan's organizational strength remains minimal.

PENNSYLVANIA Only three of the state's 25 districts present any problem. Congressman Bud Shuster in the 9th District is a Reagan supporter, and Bud Hay is backing Reagan in the 12th.

Secretary Coleman will be in Philadelphia this week to kick-off the Philadelphia campaign.

TENNESSEE There is a great deal of organizational work to be done between now and the May 25th primary. We have only the three regional chairmen, and need to name both district and county chairmen.

The state has a total of 43 delegates, 3 from each of the 8 districts and 19 at-large. These are chosen proportionally according to vote percentages, and bound for the first two ballots. If the primary were held today, it is estimated we would win 18 out of the 43.

Phone banks have been established in Memphis, Johnson City, Nashville and Chattanooga, and a volunteer recruitment letter signed by Senator Baker will be sent shortly.

Our issue strength here is centered on revenue sharing and the economy, with detente and Secretary Kissinger being the weak points.

The Reagan organization is convinced they can win both here and in Kentucky, which has a primary the same day. They have announced plans for Reagan to personally visit each major city in the state, and it appears that their strategy will rely on TV media coverage and personal campaigning rather than organizational development.

TEXAS Our state level organization continues to be strong, with an outstanding program equipped with all the necessary computer backup and necessary statistical data.

However, it is essential that our delegates and local coordinators become more active and take up the initiative necessary to attract volunteers and work on the regional and precinct level. The primary process has no Presidential candidates on the ballot, only the 96 delegates for each candidate. Therefore, the individual delegate campaigns are crucial, and our candidates must run an aggressive campaign for themselves. In addition, it is important that our supporters get out to attend each level of the convention process, and not rely on the state organization completely.

The issue of the closing of military installations is of great concern.

The Reagan strength is concentrated in Houston as well as parts of Ft. Worth, and although they are not as well organized as we are, it is expected that they will try a grassroot approach in this state similare to theri efforts in Arizona to attract new voters and control the state convention. They have already begun overtures to disappointed Wallace supporters, and a major phone effort on their part should begin next week.

VERMONT Frederick T. Smith of Burlington has accepted the position of State Chairman, and former Governor Keiser has agreed to serve on an executive committee. The Smith choice was approved by Senator Stafford, Congressman Jeffitz, and State Senator Gannett.

WASHINGTON Michigan Congressman Cederberg was our PFC spokesman at the GOP Central Committee meeting this week. Our organization needs more visibility in the western part of the state, and it is estimated that we may be able to get as many as 28 of the state's 38 delegates.

WYOMING Dick Cheney was here for a luncheon in his honor which was well attnded, with the issue of the wheat embargo emerging as the major concern. County convention results are incomplete, with totals to date showing: Ford 185, Reagan 202. State PFC Chairman Vince Horn will send out a mailing to all 385 delegates and alternates urging their support and inviting them to the Ford suite at the convention.

CAMPAIGN '76

The past two weeks included the completion of a new :30 television commercial, "Trust". This execution continues the documentary format of "Accomplishment" and "Future". The :60 commercial "Future" was researched in Illinois. Local Advocate radio commercials were produced for use in Wisconsin, notably including Governor Knowles and Melvin Laird. The Agriculture Brochure was revised to reflect a more national orientation after use in Illinois.
