NOTE:

-Open press coverage and White House photographer.
-No refreshments.

BACKGROUND:

This is a group of first, second and third grade elementary school children from Fox Hill Elementary School, Bowie, Maryland, which was called to Mike Farrell's attention. The children in the three classes have earned money or gone without something in order to make a contribution to the American Cancer Society in your behalf. The purpose has been to teach the children the importance of individuals caring for others.

The children have also been keeping track of the President's travels and have been studying the countries he will visit.

The second grade teacher's name is Mrs. Sylvia Morris.
