MICHIGAN BACKGROUNDER

Lansing, population 130,000, is the largest city in the 6th Congressional District, which also includes East Lansing and Jackson. (Lansing has a large Oldsmobile plant, which, of course, would not be directly affected if the United Auto Workers strike Ford tonight (9/14).)

From 1956 to 1974, the 6th District incumbent was Republican Charles Chamberlain. After a narrow win in 1972, he retired in 1974. The seat was won by liberal Democrat Bob Carr, a 29-year-old lawyer. Carr defeated Republican Cliff Taylor by only 647 votes.

This year, Taylor, a trial lawyer, is again the GOP nominee. The Republican Congressional Committee describes this as one of the five best possibilities of unseating a Democratic incumbent. Carr has been targeted for defeat by all the major conservative and business groups.

Taylor, who was raised in Flint, is considered an excellent candidate by the RCC. He graduated from the University of Michigan and George Washington Law School. He served three years in the Navy. He also has served as Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Ingham County, which includes Lansing and East Lansing, and as an attorney with the Michigan legislature.

Michigan, Page Two

Taylor is married and in his mid-30s. (Patti was not impressed by him, and she reports Michigan contacts are not optimistic about his changes.)

Senate Race:

I know you must be especially interested in the Ecsh-Riegle Senate race. (Riegle was elected to Congress in 1966 as a Republican and changed his affiliation to Democrat in 1973.)

The Republican Senatorial Committee describes it as a very tight race. Patti reports from Michigan that one recent poll showed Riegle substantially ahead (47 percent to 25 percent). But Riegle himself was down that much in the primary fight he won.

This is, of course, Phil Hart's seat. I'm sure you know most of this Michigan material, but I thought a few facts on paper might be helpful.

this regards where you are staying

BACKGROUND: Dr. and Mrs. Clifton R. Wharton, Jr.

Mrs. Clifton R. Wharton, Jr. (Dolores) is an author and advocate of the arts. She is a former student of Martha Graham, a director of the Museum of Modern Art in New York, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the Founder's Society, Detroit Institute of Art. She is also a director of the Kellogg Company, Michigan Bell Telephone Company, and the Michigan National Bank (Lansing).

President Ford appointed Mrs. Wharton to the National Council for the Arts on September 3, 1974. She will be leaving for Atlanta after your visit Thursday for a meeting of the Council with Nancy Hanks. The Wharton's resided in Malaysia from 1958 to 1964. Mrs. Wharton is the author of a book published in 1972: Contemporary Artists of Malaysia: Biographic Survey.

Dr. Wharton is unable to be in Lansing Wednesday night. He is taking their son Bruce to school in Deerfield, Mass. and will be attending an Equitable Life Board of Directors meeting in New York. He has been president of Michigan State University since January 2, 1970. An economist, Dr. Wharton is a leading specialist in economic development, higher education, and U.S. Foreign Policy. He received a B.A. in history from Harvard in 1947. He was the first black to be admitted to Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies, receiving his M.A. in international studies in 1948. He also has an M.A. in economics from the University of Chicago where he received his Ph.D. in 1958.

The Wharton's have two sons, Clifton III and Bruce.

Program at Ingham County Phone Bank in Lansing

Paul Starns, Ingham County Chairman, will begin the program and introduce Cliff Taylor, 6th Congressional District candidate. Taylor will be followed by Olga Esch, who will introduce you. After your remarks, you will make a few phone calls.

The program will take place in a room where volunteers are at work on the phones.

Michigan UpDate

Patti thinks you might catch a question about the UAW strike. She also said the Detroit News poll was receiving big play. (I'm sure you saw it, but I've attached a copy.)

Basic Information on the Strike:

The strike of the United Auto Workers against Ford

Motor Company began at midnight last night. Manufacturing plants in 22 states will be immediately affected. No formal negotiations are scheduled until Monday.

The union wants more paid time off. That's one of the key issues. They also are asking for a lump sum payment to pensioners to offset inflation and more money in the strike, fund.

B. FORD LINE RANGE OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Previous UAW strikes were against Ford in 1967, against General Motors in 1970 and Chrysler in 1973.

OHIO BACKGROUNDER

Columbus is an urban Republican stronghold. It is also Ohio's fastest-growing metropolitan area. (Barry Goldwater made his best Ohio showing in Columbus.) The city does have an 18 percent black population, but few ethnics from Eastern and Southern Europe. Columbus is, of course, the capital and home of Ohio State University.

Columbus is represented by two Republicans, Sam

Devine from the 12th District and Chalmers Wylie from the 15th. Despite careful redistricting by the Republican state legislature, Devine is believed to be in serious political trouble. He narrowly won in 1974 over City

Councilwoman Fran Ryan, who is his opponent again this year. Wylie is expected to win his race.

Patti does not think either Devine or Wylie will tour the Western Electric Plant with you, although Governor Rhodes will. Rhodes, a former Mayor of Columbus, will be governor until 1979.

Senate Race:

Incumbent Republican Senator Robert Taft is seeking a second term. His opponent is Howard Metzenbaum, who was defeated by John Glenn in the 1974 Democratic primary.

Apparently there is no love lost between Glenn, Metzenbaum and former Governor John Gilligan. Rhodes defeated Gilligan in 1974, when it was assumed that if Gilligan had won he would have been a bright and shining star in national Democratic politics. Gilligan appointed Metzenbaum in 1973 to fill William Saxbe's seat, because Metzenbaum ran a strong race against Taft in 1970. All this tangled web of infighting makes the picture better for Taft, although the Republican Senatorial Committee says Taft is having some problems raising money. Metzenbaum is wealthy and has been lavish in his past campaign spending.

Keith McNamara, PFC CHR, reports that jobs and inflation are the two major issues in Ohio. He also says that busing is an important concern, because a number of Ohio cities are involved in lawsuits.

Dayton is busing. Orders for busing have just been handed down for Cleveland, and Columbus is waiting for a decision. Considering that information, I thought you might want to review the President's stand on busing. I know you share the same views on busing and you have expressed them several times, but just in case, you caught a question a refresher might help.

McNamara also noted that Ohio State University, located in Columbus, just defeated Michigan State University in football.

Busing

President Ford has long been concerned about the fact that the controversy over court-ordered busing has detracted from the search for ways of achieving the critical national goal of providing quality and equality in education for America's schoolchildren.

In the President's view, there are times when school busing is constitutionally required to achieve school desegregation, but there are many instances in which it has been used when it was not constitutionally required, when better methods of solving school problems were readily at hand.

Therefore, the President ordered the Department of Justice in November of 1975 to begin a search for legal means of controlling the use of court-ordered busing as a remedy in school desegregation suits. After months of study by Administration officials and meetings held by the President with large numbers of concerned groups, the President sent to Congress on June 24, 1976, the School Desegregation Standards and Assistance Act of 1976.

This legislation was designed to limit busing to those instances only where it is constitutionally required, and to provide alternative means of solving school desegretation problems. The legislation does this by requiring Federal courts to look carefully at the cause of racial concentrations in affected schools and to order busing only when the cause of the racial concentration is one for which school officials can appropriately be held responsible. After careful consultation with respected legal scholars throughout the United States -- most notably Attorney General Levi -- the President is convinced that his solution is constitutional, that it is feasible, and that it will place the emphasis in school suits where it ought to be placed.

In his message to Congress accompanying the bill, the President said:

"At the outset, let me set forth certain principles governing my judgments and my actions.

"First, for all of my life I have held strong personal feelings against racial discrimination. I do not believe in a segregated society. We are a people of diverse background, origins, and interests, but we are still one people Americans -- and so must we live.

"Second, it is the duty of every President to enforce the law of the land. When I became President, I took an oath to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States. There must be no misunderstanding about this — I will uphold the Constitutional rights of every individual in the country. I will carry out the decisions of the Supreme Court. I will not tolerate defiance of the law.

"Third, I am totally dedicated to quality education in America -- and to the principle that public education is predominantly the concern of the community in which people live. Throughout the history of our Nation, the education of our children, especially at the elementary and secondary levels, has been a community endeavor. The concept of public education is now written into our history as deeply as any tenet of American belief."

Later in the message, the President described the objectives of and means proposed by the legislation:

"To maintain progress toward the orderly elimination of illegal segregation in our public schools, and to preserve -- or, where appropriate, restore -- community control of schools, I am proposing legislation to:

- 1. Require that a court in a desegregation case determine the extent to which acts of unlawful discrimination have caused a greater degree of racial concentration in a school or school system than would have existed in the absence of such acts.
- 2. Require that busing and other remedies in school desegregation cases be limited to eliminating the degree of student racial concentration caused by proven unlawful acts of discrimination.

- 3. Require that the utilization of court-ordered busing as a remedy be limited to a specific period of time consistent with the legislation's intent that it be an interim and transitional remedy. In general, this period of time will be no longer than five years where there has been compliance with the court order.
- 4. Create an independent National Community and Education Committee to help any school community requesting citizen assistance in voluntarily resolving its school segregation order."

"Every American, in my opinion -- wants quality education.

"I think that quality education can be enhanced by better school facilities, lower pupil-teacher ratios, the improvement of the neighborhood, as such. Those are better answers, in my judgment, than busing under a court order."

Dear Hr. User,

Your letter dated September 27th to Hrs. Ford was somehow overlooked during the intensive campaign period. It has now come to our attention, and we feel very badly about the oversight.

Your request for autographed pictures of the President for the University of Nichigan football team was discussed with the office responsible for processing such requests. I have been informed that with the time remaining before January 20th it will not be possible to process that amount of photos. We regret not being able to honor your request but hope you can understand our situation.

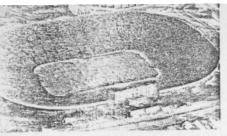

Urs. Ford so enjoyed the cassette you sent her as well as the article from the Vetroit News. She has many fond memories of their day in Ann Arbor.

Sincerely,

Nancy C. Chirdon Personal Secretary to Urs. Ford

Mrs. Gerald Ford The White House Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Ford:

It certainly was a privilege and pleasure to act as emcee for President Ford's kickoff address here in Ann Arbor, to start his campaign. I enjoyed meeting and talking with you at the reception.

You may remember, you and I discussed my sending you a list of the names of the starting eleven both on offense and defense, so that President Ford might send the Michigan football players autographed pictures. In talking this over with Bo Schembechler, we felt that with a treasured gift such as an autographed picture of the President, it had to be a case of the entire personnel of the training table at dinner with your husband that night, or no one at all. I think, if you and the President give this some thought, you'll understand what we mean.

I also realize that the President is very busy and if this is impossible, no one but Bo, you and I will know about our conversation at the reception that night. Enclosed please find a list of everyone involved at dinner with your husband that night.

Incidently, I thought maybe you and President Ford might get a kick out of the enclosed cassette. This is what I had planned to do at Crisler Arena just before you and the President appeared on the balcony. But, it was the general feeling at the time that the crowd was aroused enough and the enclosed might well bring on too many boos from the obviously organized band of Democratic booers. The enclosed is a tape of what I discussed with J. P. McCarthy on his morning disc jockey program on WJR Detroit, on Friday morning after the speech. As you probably know, WJR is one of the three largest radio stations in the country and J.P. claims  $2\frac{1}{2}$  to 3 million people listen every morning to this particular show. (The prices for his commercials would seem to verify this.)

J. P. called me from Detroit Friday night and said that the phones rang off the hook all day, with half the callers being Republicans who were delighted with my rendition of burying Jimmy Carter in peanut butter, and the other half being laughing Democrats asking for equal time!

If there is any possibility of getting the pictures for the team members, please mail them to my attention at: 206 E. Huron Street. Ann Arbor, Michigan 48108. I'll see that they are presented to Bo and the team, probably on a Friday night before a big ballgame that Bo needs to generate a little emotion for victory.

Of the many pictures taken Wednesday night at Crisler Arena, I thought the enclosed picture of President Ford was the best one, with his warm expression over his #1 Michigan team, along with his #1 position in the world.

Again Mrs. Ford, it was a real pleasure meeting you and I'll sure be praying for a big victory come November 2nd. Sending along my kindest personal regards to you and President Ford, I remain,

Most sincerely,
