Sense and nonsense, wit and sentiment—these combinations, uniquely Gilbert and Sullivan, have been relished throughout the world since 1875 when Richard D'Oyly Carte first invited W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan to collaborate in creation of Trial By Jury. Since that time, there has always been a member of the D'Oyly Carte family to carry on the happy tradition and there has always been a D'Oyly Carte Opera Company to set the highest standards of excellence unique in the production of timeless masterpieces. Now, in the year of its 101st anniversary, and for the first time in North America since 1968, the magnificent D'Oyly Carte Company offers a rare opportunity to savor the joyful fruits of the most delightful collaboration in musical history.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 6, 1976

MEMORANDUM TO: PETER SORUM
FROM: SUSAN PORTER
SUBJECT: Action Memo

Mrs. Ford has accepted the following out-of-house invitation:

EVENT: Opening Performance of the Royal Danish Ballet

DATE: Tuesday, May 11, 1976

TIME: 8:30 p.m. (7:50, arrive royal yacht)

PLACE: Opera House, Kennedy Center

CONTACT: Christopher Bq Bramsen
First Secretary, Embassy of Denmark
234-4300

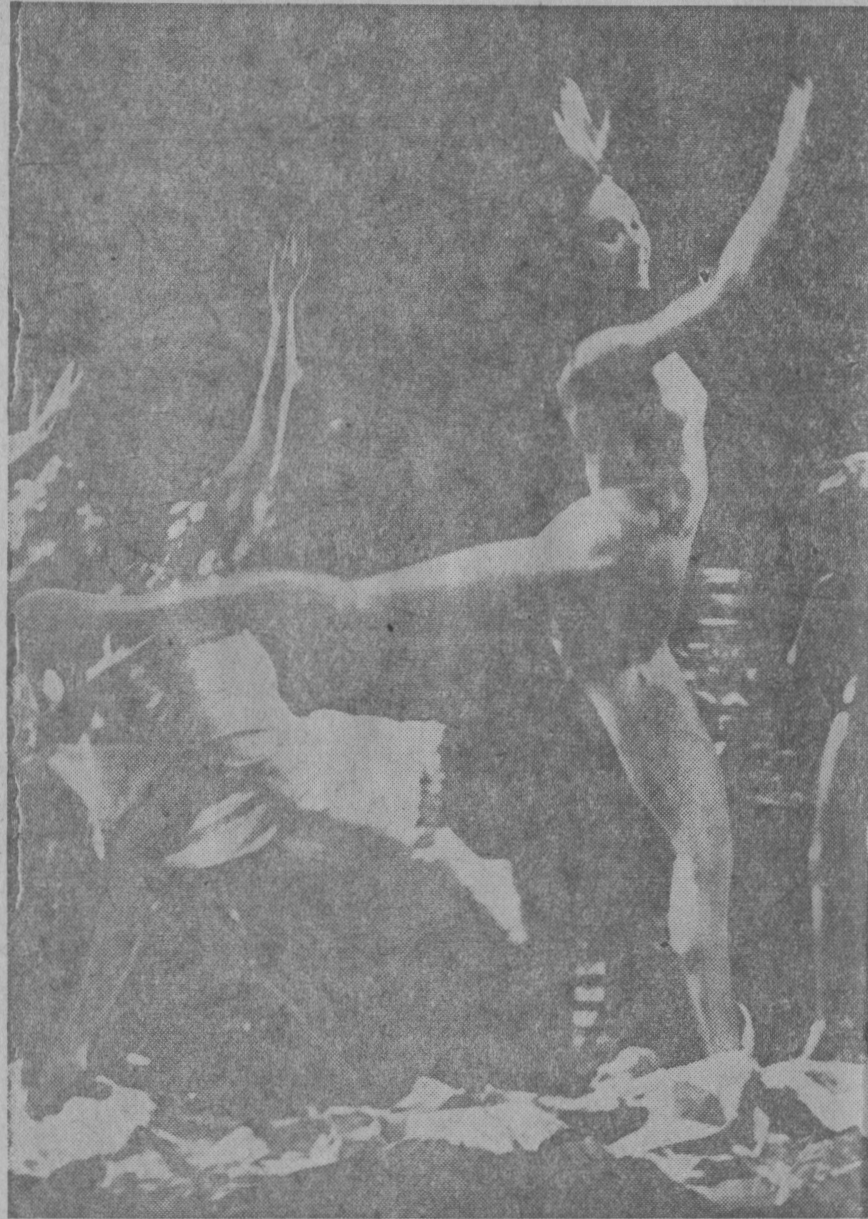

COMMENTS: Prior to attending the opening performance of the Royal Danish Ballet, Queen Margrethe II and her husband, His Royal Highness the Prince of Denmark, will host a dinner aboard their royal yacht. Although Mrs. Ford will not attend the dinner, en route to the Kennedy Center arriving at the Washington Navy Yard around 7:50, she will board the yacht for a few minutes at the conclusion of their dinner and then she and the Queen and her husband will ride together to the Kennedy Center. Because the Queen is the hostess for the evening and Mrs. Ford will be attending at her invitation, I would presume Mrs. Ford would ride in the Queen's car. I understand the ballet itself is long (3 hours). The Queen will host a reception following the performance in the Atrium of the Kennedy Center. Mrs. Ford, however, will not attend the reception. I understand Sue Davis (O: 338-5704; H: 244-4652) will do the advance.

Queen Margrethe and Prince Henrik are visiting the United States to honor our Bicentennial year--from May 9th to June 1st. They are participating in programs marking the Bicentennial and will visit Washington, D. C. plus 11 states, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. The Royal Danish Ballet is one of a large number of contributions Denmark is making to our Bicentennial.

The Royal Danish Ballet: Naiads to Nudity

By Alan M. Kriegsman

The current touring repertory of the Royal Danish Ballet runs the gamut from naiads to nudity. Therein lies the tale of the curious and beguiling duality that marks the present state of one of the world's outstanding ballet troupes, a duality which shuttles between the staid and the shocking, between veneration for an ingrained tradition and defiance of it. Both sides are illustrated in the two different programs the company is presenting at the Kennedy Center this week, starting Tuesday evening.
