HISTORY OF THE NINE INTERNATIONAL CLUBS

International Club I (I. G. C.) was founded at the home of Mrs. E. Ross Adair on Tuesday, May 5, 1953, at 3:00 P. M. The purpose and choice of members, as then defined, was "to form a club composed of diplomatic and congressional women. The members were chosen because of two qualifications: (1) interest in and desire to help organize the group; (2) geographic location."

A second meeting was held on June 5, 1953, at the Canadian Embassy with Mrs. Hume Wrong as hostess. During this and subsequent meetings, a format for entertaining was developed and the charter members were chosen. They were:

Mrs. Charles Empson Great Britain	Mrs. E. Ross Adair Indiana
Mrs. Cesar Gonzales Venezuela	Mrs. Thurmond Chatham North Carolina
Mrs. Charles Malik Lebanon	Mrs. Brooks Hayes Arkansas
Mrs. Fehmi Nuza Turkey	Mrs. Alexander Smith New Jersey
Mrs. Vladimir Popovic Yugoslavia	Mrs. Lawrence Smith Wisconsin
Mrs. Ali Sastroamidjojo Indonesia	Mrs. John Sparkman Alabama
Mrs. Bahadur Singh India	Mrs. John Vorys Ohio
Mrs. J. H. Van Roijen Netherlands
Mrs. Hume Wrong Canada

According to the minutes of February 19, 1954, "It was decided to ask Mrs. J. W. Fulbright to join the group which would make the Congressional category four Republicans and four Democrats." The husbands of this group were all members of the Foreign Relations Committee in the Senate and the Foreign Affairs Committee in the House.

Because of the unexpected success of International Club I, a second International Club was formed in 1954 following the same guide lines. In 1955, International Club III was organized with each club having only ten members from the Diplomatic Corps and ten Congressional wives.

The International Neighbors Clubs I, II, and III were founded in 1956 and 1957. Each of these clubs had thirty members. There were three categories for membership: Diplomatic, Congressional, and Washingtonian (which included Administration and residential women.)

Each club operated individually with its own by-laws, but the principle of the "Four P's" prevailed. They are -- NO POLITICS, NO PROTOCOL, NO PUBLICITY, NO PROJECTS (except the promotion of world wide good will and better understanding.

The first presidents of each of the clubs were:

- International Club I -- Mrs. E. Ross Adair, Indiana
- International Club II -- Mrs. J. Allen Frear, Jr., Delaware
- International Club III -- co-presidents
 - Mrs. Hanna Kiep, Germany
 - Mrs. Clifford McIntire, Maine
- The #1 International Neighbors Club -- Mrs. Douglas Whitlock, Residential
- International Neighbors Club II -- Lady Coulson, Great Britain
- International Neighbors Club III -- Mrs. Howard Davison, Residential

The birth of two new clubs occurred in 1969 and 1970. They are International Club IV and International Neighbors Club IV, with Mrs. Thomas Kleppe, North Dakota and Mrs. John Rhodes, Arizona as the presidents.

After the six original clubs were formed, the feeling existed that there was a need for a greater number of women to be given the opportunity to participate.

Because of the limited memberships of the six clubs, a new group was organized with an unlimited membership, and it was called "Welcome to Washington." In 1959, this club started with two hundred members, half Internationals and half from the United States. It has now grown to a strong organization of over seven hundred women representing sixty-four different countries. The four P's are observed also in this club which is now known as "Welcome to Washington International Club." The presidents were:

- 1959 - 61 -- Mrs. E. Ross Adair
- 1962 - 63 -- Mrs. George L. Hart
- 1964 - 65 -- Mrs. Ernest S. Griffith
- 1966 - 67 -- Mrs. Joseph W. Hazell
- 1968 - 69 -- Mrs. Ronald Scantlebury
- 1970 - 71 -- Mrs. Richard Paret

When Welcome to Washington was founded, there was a dream that it would be only the first of many other "Welcome" clubs to be organized in the great capital cities of the world. That dream has now become a reality with the organization of the first sister club in Brussels, Belgium, called "Welcome to Brussels."

Because much of the social activity of Washington is conducted on a large scale, the six original clubs were purposely designed as small intimate groups which would foster the development of close friendships. The success of all of the clubs has demonstrated that this concept was correct.

HISTORY OF THE NINE INTERNATIONAL CLUBS

International Club I (I. G. C.) was founded at the home of Mrs. E. Ross Adair on Tuesday, May 5, 1953, at 3:00 P. M. The purpose and choice of members, as then defined, was "to form a club composed of diplomatic and congressional women. The members were chosen because of two qualifications: (1) interest in and desire to help organize the group; (2) 'geographic location.'"

A second meeting was held on June 5, 1953, at the Canadian Embassy with Mrs. Hume Wrong as hostess. During this and subsequent meetings, a format for entertaining was developed and the charter members were chosen. They were:

Mrs. Charles Empson
Great Britain

Mrs. E. Ross Adair
Indiana

Mrs. Cesar Gonzales
Venezuela

Mrs. Thurmond Chatham
North Carolina

Mrs. Charles Malik
Lebanon

Mrs. Brooks Hayes
Arkansas

Mrs. Fehmi Nuza
Turkey

Mrs. Alexander Smith
New Jersey

Mrs. Vladimir Popovic
Yugoslavia

Mrs. Lawrence Smith
Wisconsin

Mrs. Ali Sastroamidjojo
Indonesia

Mrs. John Sparkman
Alabama

Mrs. Bahadur Singh
India

Mrs. John Vorys
Ohio

Mrs. J. H. Van Roijen
Netherlands

Mrs. Hume Wrong
Canada

According to the minutes of February 19, 1954, "It was decided to ask Mrs. J. W. Fulbright to join the group which would make the Congressional category four Republicans and four Democrats." The husbands of this group were all members of the Foreign Relations Committee in the Senate and the Foreign Affairs Committee in the House.

Because of the unexpected success of International Club I, a second International Club was formed in 1954 following the same guide lines. In 1955, International Club III was organized with each club having only ten members from the Diplomatic Corps and ten Congressional wives.

The International Neighbors Clubs I, II, and III were founded in 1956 and 1957. Each of these clubs had thirty members. There were three categories for membership: Diplomatic, Congressional, and Washingtonian (which included Administration and residential women.)

Each club operated individually with its own by-laws, but the principle of the "Four P's" prevailed. They are -- NO POLITICS, NO PROTOCOL, NO PUBLICITY, NO PROJECTS (except the promotion of world wide good will and better understanding.)

The first presidents of each of the clubs were:

International Club I -- Mrs. E. Ross Adair, Indiana

International Club II -- Mrs. J. Allen Frear, Jr., Delaware

International Club III -- co-presidents

Mrs. Hanna Kiep, Germany

Mrs. Clifford McIntire, Maine

The #1 International Neighbors Club -- Mrs. Douglas Whitlock,
Residential

International Neighbors Club II -- Lady Coulson,
Great Britain

International Neighbors Club III -- Mrs. Howard Davison
Residential

The birth of two new clubs occurred in 1969 and 1970. They were International Club IV and International Neighbors Club IV, with Mrs. Thomas Kleppe, North Dakota and Mrs. John Rhodes, Arizona as the presidents.

After the six original clubs were formed, the feeling existed that there was a need for a greater number of women to be given the opportunity to participate.

Because of the limited memberships of the six clubs, a new group was organized with an unlimited membership, and it was called "Welcome to Washington." In 1959, this club started with two hundred members, half Internationals and half from the United States. It has now grown to a strong organization of over eight hundred women representing sixty-four different countries. The four P's are observed also in this club which is now known as "Welcome to Washington International Club." The presidents were:

1959 - 61 -- Mrs. E. Ross Adair

1962 - 63 -- Mrs. George L. Hart

1964 - 65 -- Mrs. Ernest S. Griffith

1966 - 67 -- Mrs. Joseph W. Hazell

1968 - 69 -- Mrs. Ronald Scantlebury

1970 - 71 -- Mrs. Richard Paret

When Welcome to Washington was founded, there was a dream that it would be only the first of many other "Welcome" clubs to be organized in the great capital cities of the world. That dream has now become a reality with the organization of the first sister club in Brussels, Belgium, called "Welcome to Brussels."

In 1970, a second "Welcome club was founded in Canada and named "Welcome to Ottawa." Welcome to Washington has had exchange visits with each of these clubs.

Because much of the social activity of Washington is conducted on a large scale, the six original clubs were purposely designed as small intimate groups which would foster the development of close friendships. The success of all of the clubs has demonstrated that this concept was correct.

STEERING COMMITTEE OF THE FOUR INTERNATIONAL CLUBS AND THE FOUR INTERNATIONAL NEIGHBORS CLUBS

Honorary Chairman
Mrs. E. Ross Adair

Mrs. George L. Hart, Jr. (Lou) - Chairman
Mrs. Douglas Whitlock (Judy) - Secretary

The Steering Committee consists of the Chairman, the Secretary and the President of each club and one other Officer designated by the President.

Chairman of Current Membership

Mrs. Melvin Price (Garry) INC #3
6378 Lakeview Drive
Falls Church, Virginia 22041
Telephone: 256-1922

Every second month Mrs. Price will send each President a form to be filled in concerning the members who have left her Club and the names of the new members. This form is to be returned promptly to Mrs. Price. She will then send the information concerning the eight clubs to each President. This is an effort to keep membership current and aid the Membership Committee of each club.

HISTORY OF THE NINE INTERNATIONAL CLUBS

International Club I (I. G. C.) was founded at the home of Mrs. E. Ross Adair on Tuesday, May 5, 1953, at 3:00 P.M. The purpose and choice of members, as then defined, was "to form a club composed of diplomatic and congressional women. The members were chosen because of two qualifications: (1) interest in and desire to help organize the group; (2) geographic location."

A second meeting was held on June 5, 1953, at the Canadian Embassy with Mrs. Hume Wrong as hostess. During this and subsequent meetings, a format for entertaining was developed and the charter members were chosen. They were:

Mrs. Charles Empson
Great Britain

Mrs. E. Ross Adair

Mrs. Hume Wrong
Canada

According to the minutes of February 19, 1954, "It was decided to ask Mrs. J. W. Fulbright to join the group which would make the Congressional category four Republicans and four Democrats." The husbands of this group were all members of the Foreign Relations Committee in the Senate and the Foreign Affairs Committee in the House.

Because of the unexpected success of International Club I, a second International Club was formed in 1954 following the same guidelines. In 1955, International Club III was organized with each club having only ten members from the Diplomatic Corps and ten Congressional wives.

In 1956 The #1 International Neighbors Club was formed with a larger membership from the Diplomatic, Congressional, Administrative and Residential categories. The International Neighbors II and III clubs were formed in 1957, each with thirty members from the enlarged categories of membership.

Each club operated individually with its own by-laws, but the principle of the "Four P's" prevailed. They are -- NO POLITICS, NO PROTOCOL, NO PUBLICITY, NO PROJECTS (except the promotion of worldwide good will and better understanding).

The first presidents of each of the clubs were:

- International Club I -- Mrs. E. Ross Adair, Indiana
- International Club II -- Mrs. J. Allen Frear, Jr., Delaware
- International Club III -- Co-presidents
Mrs. Hanna Kiep, Germany
Mrs. Clifford McIntire, Maine
- The #1 International Neighbors Club -- Mrs. Douglas Whitlock,
Residential
- International Neighbors Club II -- Lady Coulson,
Great Britain
- International Neighbors Club III -- Mrs. Howard Davison
Residential

The birth of two new clubs occurred in 1969 and 1970. They were International Club IV and International Neighbors Club IV, with Mrs. Thomas Kleppe, North Dakota and Mrs. John Rhodes, Arizona as the presidents.

After the six original clubs were formed, the feeling existed that there was a need for a greater number of women to be given the opportunity to participate.

Because of the limited memberships of the six clubs, a new group was organized with an unlimited membership, and it was called "Welcome to Washington." In 1959 this club started with two hundred members, half Internationals and half from the United States. It has now grown to a strong organization of over eight hundred women representing sixty-four different countries. The four P's are observed also in this club which is now known as "Welcome to Washington International Club." The presidents were:

- 1959 - 61 -- Mrs. E. Ross Adair
- 1961 - 64 -- Mrs. George L. Hart, Jr.
- 1964 - 66 -- Mrs. Ernest S. Griffith
- 1966 - 68 -- Mrs. Joseph W. Hazell
- 1968 - 70 -- Mrs. Ronald Scantlebury
- 1970 - 72 -- Mrs. Richard Paret
- 1972 - 74 -- Mrs. Scott C. Whitney
- 1974 - 76 -- Mrs. Parker Hart

When "Welcome to Washington" was founded, there was a dream that it would be only the first of many other "Welcome" clubs to be organized in the great capital cities of the world. That dream has now become a reality with the organization of the first sister club in Brussels, Belgium, called "Welcome to Brussels."

In 1970, a second "Welcome" club was founded in Canada and named "Welcome to Ottawa." "Welcome to Washington" has had exchange visits with each of these clubs.

Because much of the social activity of Washington is conducted on a large scale, the six original clubs were purposely designed as small, intimate groups which would foster the development of close friendships. The success of all of the clubs has demonstrated that this concept was correct.
