Dear Mrs. Ford:

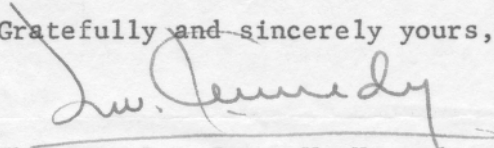

We are terribly sorry your copy of Forward Day by Day has not been reaching you since you moved to the White House, but we are trying to remedy that right away and are enclosing a copy of the current issue so that you will not miss any more of it.

I, personally, enjoyed reading the story about you in the magazine section of last Sunday's New York Times, and was caught by the title of it "Forward Day by Day." We rejoice over the fact that this little devotional booklet has meant so much to you, as it has to many others over its now forty years of existence.

We are also taking care of the renewal of the subscription to your son Michael, and to your friend Mrs. Martin.

We often have you and the President in our prayers and hope that all goes well with you both, both publicly and privately. With warmest regards.

Gratefully and sincerely yours,

The Rev. Dr. James W. Kennedy
Director and Editor
