People for Ford Rally, Olympia, Washington, October 8, 1976

We have twenty-five days until the election and alot of hard work ahead for all of us. But with the help of People for Ford volunteers, Jerry Ford will stay on the job he is doing so well!

You remember those dark days when he came into office. We were all depressed about our country. The economy was in bad shape, and other countries were uneasy about all the confusion in America. That's all changed now, because President Ford provided strong and steady leadership. He has accomplished much in two years with tough decisions and hard work----not with smiles and empty promises.

We don't know what the next four years will bring our country, but we know what kind of leader Jerry Ford is.

The message you can help carry to the people of Washington state is that Jerry Ford offers performance, not promises.

And President Ford is going to need the help of Republicans like John Spellman as Governor to keep common sense in the government.

Governor Evans, ^{He cannot be there -- debating)} (future Governor Spellman) and all of you---- thank^{you} for your support. Now let's go to work to make November 2nd a Republican sweep!

LAST NIGHT IN THE DEBATE I SPOKE OF AMERICA'S FIRM SUPPORT FOR THE ASPIRATIONS FOR INDEPENDENCE OF THE NATIONS OF EASTERN EUROPE. [THE UNITED STATES HAS NEVER CONCEDED AND NEVER WILL CONCEDE THEIR DOMINATION BY THE SOVIET UNION.]

IT IS OUR POLICY TO USE EVERY PEACEFUL MEANS TO ASSIST COUNTRIES IN EASTERN EUROPE IN THEIR EFFORTS TO BECOME LESS DEPENDENT ON THE SOVIET UNION AND TO ESTABLISH CLOSER TIES WITH THE WEST. ^{and closer} and, of course, the U.S.A.

I AM VERY MUCH AWARE OF THE PRESENT PLIGHT OF THE EASTERN EUROPEAN NATIONS AND, AS I DECLARED IN THIS YEAR'S CAPTIVE NATIONS PROCLAMATION:

And I quote
"THE UNITED STATES SUPPORTS THE ASPIRATIONS FOR FREEDOM, INDEPENDENCE, AND NATIONAL SELF DETERMINATION OF ALL PEOPLES. WE DO NOT ACCEPT FOREIGN DOMINATION OVER ANY NATION." Period

* The U.S. will never concede to Soviet domination the hearts and minds of Eastern European people.

* The President has a long record — one of 25 years — for support of captive nations. Carter never heard of the issue

Vol. 122

WASHINGTON, MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1976

No. 117

House of Representatives

CAPTIVE NATIONS COMMITTEE OF WESTERN NEW YORK UPHOLDS THE RIGHT OF ALL TO FREEDOM AND SELF-DETERMINATION

HON. JACK F. KEMP

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, August 2, 1976

Mr. KEMP. Mr. Speaker, last Saturday I had the honor and privilege to be the keynote speaker at the commemorative banquet and dance of the Captive Nations Committee of western New York. This excellent group, the president of which is Mr. Frank Z. Til of Croatian heritage, has done a magnificent job in fighting to keep alive the hopes and dreams for freedom of the 150 million people in captive nations behind the Communist Iron Curtain.

Thomas Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence for our Nation 200 years ago, said:

The God who gave us life, gave us liberty at the same time.

Those same God-given rights of liberty and life are basic to all peoples, no matter where or who they are and are not subject to change.

Yet there are millions of persons yearning for freedom in the world today who are denied their basic human liberties, dignity, and rights of self-determination.

These people are unwillingly living under the yoke of communism, fostered and encouraged by an imperialistic and expansionist Russian foreign policy.

These are the people of the captive nations.

There is no crueler sentence for these captive nations than to abandon them through our present policy of one-way détente. The Soviet attitude of "peaceful coexistence" has not changed since the Russian revolution of 1917. Leonid Brezhnev himself stated in 1973—

Peaceful coexistence does not mean the end of the struggle of the two world powers. The struggle between the proletariat and the bourgeoisie, between world socialism and imperialism will be waged right up to the complete and final victory of communism on a world scale.

And as recently as this spring's 25th Communist Party Congress, Brezhnev repeated that détente does not "in the slightest abolish the laws of the class struggle."

I believe our perception of the Soviet threat as well as our own approach to national security is deficient for not taking into account the fact that Soviet thinking and values do not mirror our own. Whether Secretary of State Henry Kissinger believes in the eventual reconciliation of the philosophical differences between a free and a totalitarian state, does not alter the fact that right now the Soviet Union is actively pursuing the expansionist philosophy of world communism, through the gradual and not so subtle takeover of defenseless countries.

Since 1917, Soviet aggression has enslaved roughly 125 million people in Poland, Hungary, Lithuania, Ukraine, Czechoslovakia, Latvia, Estonia, Croatia, White Ruthenia, Romania, East Germany, Bulgaria, mainland China, Armenia Azerbaijan, Georgia, North Korea, Albania, Idel-Ural, Tibet, Cossackia, Turkestan, North Vietnam, South Vietnam, Angola, and others.

Where will be the next victims? In Western Europe? In the Mideast? Africa? South America?

I find it inconceivable that, with the evidence before them, senior State Department officials such as Henry Kissinger and Helmut Sonnenfeldt persist in steering the United States in the path of accommodation to Soviet foreign policy, and the abandonment of the millions of people who look to the United States as the citadel of freedom and concern for human rights around the world.

I believe that it is time for the United States to reassert in no uncertain terms its commitment to the freedom of these captive nations, and I support and commend the President for his proclamation marking Captive Nations Week, 1976, which says—

For two centuries, the fundamental basis of American policy toward other nations has remained unchanged: the United States supports the aspirations for freedom, independence, and national self-determination of all peoples. We do not accept foreign domination over any nation.

The time has come for the United States to demand fair and equitable cooperation from the Soviets before we grant any concessions under the nebulous label of "détente." Détente must be mutually reciprocal and two ways if it is to be détente at all. Otherwise it is but appeasement.

Mr. Speaker, I was privileged to be present in the Capitol when that distinguished and remarkable Nobel prize-winning author, Alexandr Solzhenitsyn, addressed many Members of the Congress. Mr. Solzhenitsyn repeated to us his message to the Western World:

Whether or not the United States so desires, it stands at the peak of world history and takes the burden of leadership if not of the whole world, then of at least a good half of it. The United States has not had a thousand years to train for this. Maybe the 200 years of your existence has been time to weld together a sense of national awareness. The load of obligations and responsibilities has fallen on you unbidden.

That is why you members of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, each one of you is not just an ordinary member of an ordinary Parliament—you have been elected to a particular position in the contemporary world. I would like to convey to you how we—the citizens of the communist countries look upon your words, deeds, proposals, and enactments—as brought to us over the radio sometimes with warm approval and sometimes also with horror and despair. But we never have a chance to respond out loud.

Perhaps some of you, in your minds, still feel yourselves just representatives of your state or party—but we from over there, far away from here, the whole world itself, does not perceive these differences. We do not look upon you as Democrats or Republicans, not as representatives of the East or West coast or the Midwest, we see you as figures upon ends of whom depends whether the course of world history will tend to tragedy or salvation.

As I told my audience of "freedom fighters," my goal as a Member of Congress from Buffalo area to represent them according to the ideals of Solzhenitsyn.

Mr. Speaker, in our search for world peace, we must never lose sight of the human values embodied in our heritage, never accept the pragmatic expediences of the moment as paramount to basic principles. As we celebrate our independence from tyrannical colonial rule, we must realize that colonialism and imperialism still exists in a much more suppressive form.

I urge my colleagues in the Congress, and all Americans who have been fortunate enough to experience true liberty, to redouble our efforts to gain freedom for all nations oppressed by the yoke of communism.

Mr. Speaker, at this time I would like to enter into the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD the names of some of those who helped make the Captive Nations Week dinner in Buffalo such a memorable one:

Mr. Shehat Osmani, of Albanian heritage, Mr. Miro Gergoff, of Bulgarian heritage, Mr. Frank Z. Til, of Croatian heritage, Mr. Steven Glamuzina, of Croatian heritage, Mr. Voldemar Kirss, of Estonian heritage, Mr. Tibor Baranski, of Hungarian heritage, Dr. Daniel Vizsolyi, of Hungarian heritage, Mr. Vidis Malejs, of Latvian heritage, Mr. Romas Masiulionis, of Lithuanian heritage, Judge Joseph Forma, of Polish heritage, Sue Bartos, of Polish heritage, Col. William Cybulski, of Polish heritage, Mr. Karol Tomaszewski, of Polish heritage, Mr. and Mrs. Wasyl Sharvan, of Ukrainian heritage, Mr. Andrew Diakun, J.D., of Ukrainian heritage, Mrs. Dasha Procyk, of Ukrainian heritage, Marta Hawryluk, of Ukrainian heritage.

Spiritual leaders included: Rt. Rev. Msgr. Paul Iwaciw, of Ukrainian heritage; and Rev. Stephan Lackovic, of Croatian heritage.

Further, Mr. Speaker, three great "freedom fighters" were honored, in recognition of their outstanding service on behalf of the captive nations the following past president of the Captive Nations Committee of western New York received awards, and I salute them here:

Dr. Edward M. O'Connor, (the late) Dr. Nestor Procyk, M.D., and Mr. Tibor Baranski.

I am grateful for their courageous and dedicated leadership in the fight for freedom and independence for all people of the captive nation's They are truly Americans of whom we all can be proud.

Mrs. Lois Spellman, wife of John Spellman, GOP Candidate for Governor of Washington State

The candidate will be in Spokane for a debate with his Democratic opponent, former AEC chairman Dixie Lee Ray. You will be accompanied by Mrs. Spellman.

The Spellmans have six children, three boys and three girls, ranging in age from 21 to seven. They are Catholics, and both attended Seattle University.

Spellman, a graduate of Georgetown Law School, is presently county executive of King County, where Seattle is located. He was first elected in 1967 as one of three commissioners of King County. When the local government was re-organized in 1969, he was elected to his present job. He was re-elected in November, 1973. He is 49, and he won the GOP primary in late September very hardily. The general election is expected to be close.

COLORADO

THE MAN:

It's no wonder to Coloradans that Gerald Ford is at home in our Rocky Mountains . . . that he understands the quiet strength of Colorado outdoors. Columnist Jack Anderson says of Ford, the man, "There is nothing suave or subtle about Gerald Ford — none of the sophisticated mannerisms which Americans are inclined to distrust." Whether skiing in Vail or greeting foreign leaders in Washington, Gerald Ford maintains a clear sense of priorities. His family has always been his top priority. Said son Jack at the Republican State Convention in Fort Collins, "My Dad made good decisions in Congress. He's made good decisions for the country. And, most important, he's always made good decisions for our family." It's no secret in this part of the country. Gerald Ford is a man with qualities Westerners know how to appreciate. Tough but kind. Informal but direct.

HE'S MAKING US PROUD AGAIN !

THE LEADER:

Gerald Ford took on the presidency — the toughest job in the world — at the toughest time in our history. And he's proved he's tough enough to get the job done. The October 4th TIME says of President Ford, "He is sound, solid, steady . . . His composure is unlikely to crack under the strain of crisis." Former Colorado Governor John Love says of President Ford, "He's the kind of leader who listens. He has the important decision-making attributes of experience and sound judgment. Yet, never in his political career has he been carried away with his own importance." Even his opponents recognize Gerald Ford as a fighter, a determined leader who understands what the relationship of Congress to the presidency ought to be. As President, Ford has used his power of veto and the knowledge gained from serving in Congress to win a series of victories for common sense. From the peaks to the plains, Coloradans agree . . . Gerald Ford is the best qualified leader for our country.

HE'S MAKING US PROUD AGAIN !

THE FUTURE:

President Ford believes in three basic principles of primary importance to the future direction of government in our state and nation: less government interference in our lives, more efficient and less costly government, greater local control in government. His accomplishments in the past two years tell us a lot about what to expect of him in the next four. He has led us on a steady economic course out of the recession. He has cut inflation in half. He has increased employment by 3.8 million in the last year. Coloradans know they can believe President Ford when he says, "The best tax reform is tax reduction." They know they can trust him to really hold down the cost of government. They know he means it when he says, "We will not promise more than we can deliver, and we will deliver all that we promise." The Ford-Dole team will lead us in building a new dimension of freedom for the future that will allow all Americans to share equally in the advantages of a free society.

HE'S MAKING US PROUD AGAIN !

PRESIDENT FORD ON THE ISSUES:

TAXES

"... for every dollar saved in cutting the growth of the Federal budget we can have an added dollar of Federal tax reduction."

"I propose increasing the personal tax exemption from $750 to $1000."

JOBS

"The Federal Government can create conditions and incentives for private business and industry to make more jobs."

EDUCATION

"... I am totally dedicated to quality education — and to the principle that public education is predominately the concern of the community in which people live."

DEFENSE

"I am convinced that adequate spending for national defense is an insurance policy for peace we cannot afford to be without."

AGRICULTURE

"We will never use the bounty of America's farmers as a pawn in international diplomacy. There will be no embargoes!"

Visit to Denver and Boulder

On Friday night, you will attend a reception for women leaders. Patti describes them as having been recruited from the local business and professional groups, and the hope is they will be Ford volunteers and leaders. You will mingle informally.

There will be a proposal on the ballot in Colorado to repeal the state's ERA and to rescind approval of the national Equal Rights Amendment. ERA supporters should vote "no." A recent poll in the Denver Post showed that ERA supporters are ahead. The proposal is Number Six on the ballot.

On Saturday, you will meet Ford volunteers who are passing out campaign literature at the Colorado-Nebraska game and then attend part of the game.

Nebraska is ranked fifth in the National standings. Both teams are in the Big Eight. Colorado has won three and lost one. Nebraska has won three and tied one. This is the first conference game of the season for both.

Politics

Neither Senator, both Democrats, or the Democratic governor is up for re-election. The House delegation has three Democrats and two Republicans. The two GOP incumbents, Jim Johnson and Bill Armstrong, are expected to win, but Johnson could have a tough race, because of an independent in the contest. Johnson, who represents the 4th (Wayne Aspinall's old district), was first elected in 1972. This district encompasses both the East and West Slope of Colorado, and the environment is an important issue. Armstrong has no strong opponent.

In the 1st district, which is Denver, the RCC thinks it is running its best candidate yet against Patricia Schroeder. He is Don Friedman, a state representative.

In the 2nd, which combines suburban Denver and Boulder (home of the University of Colorado), freshman Timothy Wirth has received a lot of national attention. His GOP opponent is Ed Scott, a radio owner. Wirth's 1974 opponent was Don Brotzman, and the district is considered Republican.

Colorado, Page Two

In the 3rd Dr. Mel Takaki, a dentist and former mayor of Pueblo, is trying to unseat Democrat Frank Evans. Although he is seeking a seventh term, redistricting may have made Evans vulnerable.

Colorado is producing a new breed of liberal activists like Senator Gary Hart, who unseated Peter Dominick in 1974. Issues like the environment, controlled growth and energy are very important.

Other Political Visitors

Carter was in Denver earlier this week, but First Family campaigning in Colorado has been limited. A Newsweek poll puts the President ahead in Colorado. Since this was a Reagan state, obviously the emphasis is on gearing up GOP volunteers.

Friendly is the word for the Kansas City Convention. Not only did the Republican delegates, alternates and guests get along well, but the people of Kansas City welcomed us with open arms.

Even the cab drivers in K.C. were most helpful (unlike their NYC counterparts were reported to be. But then that was the Democrat Convention) On Thursday night, some of us had to Buffalo, the second largest city in New York and one of the most important industrial centers on the Great Lakes, has financial problems and high unemployment. The city is one of the Nation's leading steel producers and grain millers.

Buffalo

The city has a black population of 21 percent and an ethnic population of 28 percent. The two largest ethnic groups are the Poles and the Italians. The mix of blacks and ethnics has produced racial tensions. The city also has a large Catholic population.

Buffalo teachers recently went back to the classroom after a four-week strike, which delayed implementation of a school desegregation plan. There is busing, and it is not being well-received.

One of the major reasons for Buffalo's financial problems is a heavy welfare load. The city is trying legal methods to try to get more state and federal money to help with welfare. The welfare tally also includes the unemployment payments.

Politics

Senator Jim Buckley is trying for a second term against Patrick Moynihan, who won a hotly contested Democratic primary. This is a tight race with Moynihan favored. The attached article tells about a recent Moynihan incident in Buffalo.

Four Congressional districts involve sections of Buffalo. The 36th includes Niagara Falls and parts of suburb Erie County and a few blocks of Buffalo. The District, formerly represented by Republican Henry Smith, is considered a basically Republican area, but the Democratic incumbent, John LaFalce won comfortably in 1974. Dr. Ralph Argen, an internist, is the Republican candidate. He has raised lots of money, is considered a good candidate, and may have a good chance of defeating LaFalce.

The 37th is the main Buffalo district, and it is heavily Democratic. The incumbent, Henry Nowak, was first elected like LaFalce in 1974. Since the district even voted for McGovern, he's a solid favorite to be re-elected. His GOP opponent, Calvin Kimbrough, is a black, who works in a Federal training program.

The 38th, which is primarily suburban Erie County, is Jack Kemp's district. He made the best showing of any Republican in New York State in 1974, and is not expected to have problems with his Democratic opponent.

The 39th, formerly Republican Jim Hastings' district, is now represented by Stanley Lundeen, who won the special in March, 1976. Lundeen isn't expected to have problems defeating his young GOP opponent, Richard Snowden, an insurance agent.

Carter had a noticeably cool reception in Buffalo recently despite the unemployment problem. A recent poll in the Buffalo newspaper showed the President within two percentage points of Carter!

Background on Pulaski Parade

Casimir Pulaski, a Polish cavalry officer, was under thirty when Benjamin Franklin advanced him funds to sail to America. Pulaski was given the top cavalry command under General Benjamin Lincoln in the Southern Campaign. He was killed while charging British lines at the head of his troops before the battle of Savannah in 1779.

Pulaski is honored by one of the four corner statues in Lafayette Square along with Thaddeus Kosciuszko, another Polish officer who served with great distinction in the American Revolution.

Rowland Evans and Robert Novak

The Moynihan-Buckley Contest

SYRACUSE—As Daniel Patrick Moynihan was stilling a gossipy crowd of Democrats at a highly successful fundraiser in the Syracuse Hotel here last Wednesday, a leading Democratic officeholder whispered to his companion:

"Pat's got it locked up—unless he makes another bad boo-boo."

Moynihan squeaked out a primary election win on Sept. 14 without a single bad boo-boo. But three days later in Buffalo—the most heavily unionized city in heavily unionized New York State—he committed a costly blunder.

He forgot that most municipal unions are viewed even by labor-oriented Democrats as tax-devouring evils, a switch in political thinking that has converted tax-paid unions with swollen pension plans and extravagant fringe benefits into a social issue with highly negative ramifications.

Moynihan's Buffalo boo-boo last month had its predictable result last week: A poll by the Buffalo Evening News that showed Buckley actually leading Moynihan by 4 percentage points in the most Democratic upstate gies. The campaign is dramatized further by stark differences in personality between flamboyant, gregarious Moynihan, the towering Harvard professor, diplomat and one-time Nixon staffer, and Buckley, shy and diffident.

Indeed, the campaign performance of Buckley (who was elected in 1970 with only 39 per cent of the vote in a three-way contest) may test whether post-Watergate disillusion with politics and politicians now puts a premium on candidates who refuse to act like candidates.

THE MOOD AND SPIRIT OF GENERAL CONVENTION

On September 26, Canon Chapman's sermon focused on the Spirit of God moving through the mood and process of the recent General Convention of our Church, and at the discussion group a panel of those who attended the Convention spoke in the same vein, seeking to convey a sense of the tone in which our fellow Episcopalians sought to deal with issues which were potentially divisive.

At last Sunday's services we distributed copies of the final issue of the General Convention daily, which summarized not only the main events and decisions in Minneapolis, but also sought to communicate the mood and spirit of that historic meeting. (Extra copies of this paper are available in the Church Narthex and the Church office.)

The House of Bishops' Pastoral Letter, issued immediately after the Convention, seeks to convey the urgency of maintaining that commitment to unity in the Spirit. It states:

... "At Minneapolis we accepted the Proposed Book of Common Prayer as a companion to our present Prayer Book for the next three years. We also voted to open the priesthood and episcopate in the Episcopal Church to women. We cannot yet begin to see in all their far-reaching effects the consequences of these decisions. All we know is that the future belongs to the Lord as does the present and as does the past.

"The actions taken by the General Convention at Minneapolis—and our response to them—require that we look anew at the source of our unity. We plead that no hasty actions be taken by any person or group which would even appear to breach our oneness in Jesus Christ or our fellowship with one another in the Church.

... "Continuity in the apostolic church does not reside solely in a continuous repetition of customs unchanged, be they worship, order or service. Apostolic continuity is preserved in spirit and substance, not merely in forms and structures. Where love and unity, where worship and outreach are evident, there is the Spirit . . ."

Here at St. Paul's, whatever our convictions may be on individual issues, we have an opportunity to respond to that call by our Bishops to demonstrate in our life here the same kind of prayerful response to the Spirit which seemed to be so manifest in Minneapolis.

A COUNTRY OUTING FOR OLDER PARISHIONERS

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Olena have kindly asked the Older Parishioners from St. Paul's to enjoy the hospitality of their home in East Aurora on Wednesday, October 13. We will meet there at 11:30 for worship, a luncheon, and a delightful music program. The autumn leaves should be at their best, so we encourage everyone to join us in this opportunity to see the fall beauty and enjoy the friendship and fellowship of being with others from St. Paul's. Transportation is provided. Please phone the Cathedral office, 853-6668, immediately for your reservation.

THE ANNUAL OPEN HOUSE AND SILVER TEA FOR THE CHURCH HOME will be held at the residence at 24 Rhode Island Street, on Sunday, October 17, from 3 to 5 o'clock. Special tours of the Thornton, Cornell and Robinson buildings will be conducted under the direction of the Hostesses. All Episcopalians, and their friends, are urged to come and acquaint themselves with the facilities available for the well aged. Children are especially welcome.

INQUIRERS CLASSES BEGIN ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24

Beginning on Sunday, October 24, at 10:00 we will have a class for adults desiring to learn more about the Episcopal Church. These classes are particularly for those considering Confirmation or reception by the Bishop when he visits St. Paul's on January 2.

A number of people have expressed interest in these classes. Anyone is welcome to attend, and you are particularly urged to bring new people to these classes. They will meet from 10:00 to 10:50 in the Cathedral House, and will be led by the clergy. Dean Smith will lead the introductory session.

"ARE THE GOOD REWARDED" Canon Griswold's Sermon This Sunday

Are the good rewarded? Often, we are admonished to work hard, do the right things, be "good" people and God will reward us. This may be a satisfactory morality for some but it is not Christian morality. The Church exists to bring us into communion with God Who is so trustworthy that He will do "good" things for us beyond that which we may pray or ask for. But God's "good" is often very different from our concept of "good". As Christians we do not have to work for God's reward; God already loves us, has given us our reward. It is in our response to His Gift of Love that Christian life moves whether or not we receive any material rewards.

Canon Griswold will explore how we have already been rewarded by God in his sermon this Sunday.

EVENSONG NEXT SUNDAY

The Cathedral Choir of Men and Boys will present a Service of Choral Evensong next Sunday, October 17th, at 5:00. A concert of choral anthems by Herbert Howells will follow the Service.

FALL UTO INGATHERING—All women of the parish are asked to bring the contents of their Blue "Thank Offering" Boxes for dedication in any one of the services on Sunday, October 24. With grateful hearts, come—join other Episcopal Churchwomen throughout the Diocese in saying "Thank You", and let your coins of thanksgiving go forth to help those less fortunate.

DIET WORKSHOP AND ARTISTIC EVENTS BEING PLANNED

As plans materialize for programs that can be of service to people in the downtown area, we are delighted to announce that beginning Thursday, October 14th, THE DIET WORKSHOP will hold an OPEN HOUSE for any interested in its program.

THE DIET WORKSHOP is an International weight control program conceived and established for the purpose of offering a program which will enable members to lose weight and keep it off in a dignified and healthful manner. The members are weighed in, in private. Their weight is never disclosed to others in the group, only the loss or gain. A program is presented of interest to the entire group, after which the individual has a chance to discuss problems met in following the diet. There is no medical advice given, nor is group therapy attempted. However, the stimulus of the weekly meetings is a tremendous incentive, especially for those who have been unsuccessful in the past.

Anyone interested may come to this first meeting free of charge. At the end of the meeting a period of registration will be offered.

Like Alcoholics Anonymous, the Diet Workshop is completely self-supporting. An AA group has started at St. Paul's and we look forward to the beginning of the Diet Workshop Thursday, October 14th, from noon to one o'clock in the John K. Walker Room of the Cathedral.

Plans are also being formulated to provide opportunities for performing artists to present dance, drama and music in the downtown area at St. Paul's. As will be the case with visual artists, we hope to provide a service to those involved in the arts that they might not otherwise have. These events will be publicized so that both members and friends of the Cathedral and anyone in the downtown area may come and enjoy them.

Further plans will be announced after the Program and Outreach Committee has had a chance to meet and deal with these and other ideas. We welcome your interest; so do not hesitate to call the Cathedral if you have any questions.

YOUR VESTRY NOMINATING COMMITTEE . . .

is now in the process of considering candidates for Warden and Vestrypersons to be elected by the congregation at our annual parish dinner on Monday night, December 6. If you are interested in proposing candidates for consideration by the committee, I encourage you to send in your suggestions of nominees to the Church Office.

We will elect one Warden and four Vestry members. Warden William C. Baird has announced that he will not be a candidate for reelection as Warden, in line with his plan to retire from other official responsibilities in the community during the coming year. The term of Warden Joseph T.J. Stewart continues until 1978.

Members of the Vestry whose terms expire at the end of this year are—Alfred R. Bourne, John L. Hettrick, A. David Jones and Mrs. Norman Secor. They are not eligible for reelection at this meeting. Members of the Vestry whose terms do not expire are: Miss Allalee Babbidge, Dr. William George, Nevin J. Jamieson, Mrs. C. Edwin Long, Jr., John D. O'Hern, Mrs. Arnold T. Olena, Chase Viele and Mrs. William H. Walker, II.

In order to qualify for Warden a candidate must be a former Vestryperson and a communicant of this parish.

In order to qualify for Vestryperson, a candidate must be at least 18 years of age and a baptized member of this parish.

REMEMBER THE BOOK SALE THIS SUNDAY

Here's a chance to buy and browse among thousands of books and magazines made available for this annual sale conducted by the Women of St. Paul's, in the John K. Walker Room. Proceeds go to provide books for seminarians.

HOME WORSHIP THIS THURSDAY

The next Home Worship Service will be held this Thursday, October 14th, in the home of Alan and Barbara Blackburn. They live at 31 Reist Street, just off Main, in Williamsville.

We will gather for Holy Communion at 7:45 p.m. (We suggest that this may be a little late for young children), and will then have time for light refreshments—perhaps wine and cheese—and fellowship. At the last home worship service we had several "new" people join us, and that is very good. These services are not the special interest of any group, nor are they geared to any particular age or situation—married couples, single people, young children, and septuagenarians regularly join together. They are, rather, opportunities to get to worship and grow together in ways not possible in the formal setting of Sunday Church.

Transportation to and from the Blackburns' can easily be arranged by calling Canon Chapman, 853-6668. We hope that everyone who is interested, or just curious, can join us on Thursday.

SWINE FLU SHOTS

As announced last June in The Chimes, we will be providing Swine Flu shots for members of St. Paul's Cathedral, at no cost. Mrs. Carol Tigges, director of our Ministry with Older parishioners, will begin inoculations at the monthly outing on Friday, November 12th. Any people who are shut in and cannot get down to the Cathedral will be visited in their homes.

On Sunday, the 14th of November, Swine Flu shots will be offered to all parishioners. Mrs. Tigges, a Registered Nurse, has secured the services of several other parishioners who are nurses, so that the inoculation program can proceed quickly. We have ordered 600 doses of the vaccine, so that we can handle everyone who wants to receive a Swine Flu shot. The program, of course, is under the supervision of a physician. Mrs. Tigges will also administer the vaccine to residents of Brent Manor.

WELCOME

Introduce yourself after the service to several people you do not know. The friendly spirit of this Cathedral depends upon you, whether you are a new or old member. Please give your name and address to an usher or to the clergy. If you have no Church home in Buffalo, we invite you to make the Cathedral your Church.

- 1 Lord, thou hast ' been our ' refuge,
*from one gene'ration ' to an'other.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the ' world were ' made,
*thou art God from ever'lasting, and ' world with-out ' end.
- 3 Thou turnest ' man . to de'struction;
*again thou sayest, Come a'gain, ye ' children of ' men.
- 4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday ' when it . is ' past, *and ' as a ' watch in . the ' night.
- 5 As soon as thou scatterest them they are ' even . as a'sleep;
*and fade away ' sudden-ly ' like the ' grass.

- 6 In the morning it is green, and ' groweth ' up;
*but in the evening it is cut ' down, dried ' up, and ' withered.
- 7 For we consume away in ' thy dis'pleasure,
*and are afraid at thy ' wrathful ' indig'nation.
- 8 Thou hast set our mis'deeds be'fore thee;
*and our secret ' sins in . the ' light of . thy ' countenance.
- 9 For when thou art angry, all our ' days are ' gone:
*we bring our years to an end, as it ' were a ' tale . that is ' told.
- 10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten;
and though men be so strong that they come to ' fourscore ' years,
*yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow;
so soon passeth it a'way, and ' we are ' gone.
- 11 But who regardeth the ' power of . thy ' wrath?
*or feareth a'right thy ' indig'nation?
- 12 So teach us to ' number our ' days,
*that we may ap'ply our ' hearts . unto ' wisdom.
