Press Secretary to the President
The White House Office
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ron:

Our city, the President's hometown, is celebrating its 150th birthday this year. We are scheduling special programs in late summer and early fall and need the assistance of your good offices to round out a key part of our plans. It involves about an hour and a half of the President's time...including setup and teardown.

We'd be talking on camera with Mr. Ford for a half-hour or so, asking him to reflect on his days in Grand Rapids: how he remembers it as a boy, how he found it after WWII, what his relationships as a Congressman were with his constituents, and how those relationships changed when he moved to Veep and then President.

The interview would be very informal. I believe Mr. Ford would enjoy it. And as part of our station's observance of the city's sesquicentennial, it would become a record of sorts of the feelings of our first citizen.

I'll be in Washington the week of June 7th on business. If the President's schedule permits, we could shoot for sometime Saturday, June 12th, or Sunday, the 13th, or any date which you and he finds most convenient. We'll come down whenever. It would be a two camera affair, party of four.

Mr. Nessen

MEMORANDUM FOR: BOB HARTMANN

FROM: ED SCHMULTS ES

The President has tentatively agreed to address the Chamber of Commerce on April 26, 1976. I do not believe that any final topic for that address has been chosen. As you may recall, his address last year before the Chamber (which was on April 28, 1975) was the first major outline of his regulatory reform program.

Since that time, we have achieved considerable legislative and administrative progress. As the one year anniversary of this address, I believe it would be appropriate and useful if the President returned to the Chamber of Commerce and outlined the results that have occurred, and the bipartisan support he has received.

Also, it would be extremely useful to use this forum to announce the long term regulatory reform action program which will lead to fundamental reform in the government's role in the economy.

If you agree, I will provide a first draft of the address by Saturday, April 17, 1976.

OUTLINE OF PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS ON REGULATORY REFORM

- Exactly one year ago this coming Wednesday, I outlined before you my program of regulatory reform.
- Since that time, we have made important progress in this critical area, progress that moves us towards an open and vigorous free market, less paperwork, more intelligent regulation and more opportunity for businessmen to run their own businesses. However, we have a long way to go.
- I want to outline our successes, the current Congressional and Administration cooperation and new directions that will further our goals.
- The goals of my Administration in regulatory reform are:
 - to make sure that government policies do not infringe on individual choice and initiative.
 - to reduce government intervention in the market place.
 - to find better ways to assure that scarce economic resources are used most efficiently so that we fulfill our desirable social goals at minimum cost.
 - to improve our ability to ensure that public expenditures benefit the public as a whole and that government policies are equitably enforced.
 - to make sure the public interest rather than special interests benefit from government programs.
- We have had some outstanding successes:
 1. We have reversed the trend of paperwork growth and I can announce that we will have a reduction of 10% in the next few months.
 2. I have met twice with the Independent Regulatory Agencies and they are demonstrating increasing progress in reducing delay and unnecessary regulations - (cite examples).
 3. The first lessening of ICC regulation of the railroads since the creation of the agency in 1887 has been signed into law and I have introduced the first major reform of airline and trucking regulation since the 1930s.

4. The Senate has passed the Financial Institutions Act which is the most sweeping reform of banking regulation in over 40 years.

5. We have achieved the first competition in the securities markets in almost 200 years.

6. We have repealed the fair trade laws which were on the books for over 40 years and which unnecessarily held prices up for the American consumer.

7. Etc.

- The Congress has begun to take this issue seriously and we have made important bi-partisan progress. Last June, I met with 24 Congressmen and Senators, Democrat and Republican, and we agreed to work together on the common problem of unnecessary regulation. (Mention specific Congressmen and Senators, e.g. John Anderson, Percy, Kennedy, Jordan, etc.)
- This Administration will not rest on these results. Even though they are far in excess of what our critics thought possible.
- I have commissioned several task forces to examine and improve OSHA and other agencies' regulatory processes which have been particular problems in the past.
- Finally, I am announcing that my Administration will shortly be submitting legislation to fundamentally review the impact of the government on the economy and on business. However, this won't be just another study. It will result in action -- legislative and administrative. The President and the Congress will be required to take action to resolve these problems.
- Together we must work toward reforming government. Businessmen, consumers, and the government must take the long view. Our economy can grow only if the government is not part of the problem but is part of the solution.
- Etc. and closing.

10:00 Mrs. Buchen talked with Shirley yesterday and she said it was her understanding that nothing has been done about getting Ambassador Maytag in to see the President; in checking the Ambassador's schedule, she would be free the week of April 25th; however, the President is out of town the 27th, 28th and 29th.

Shirley drafted the attached schedule proposal.

12:20 p.m.

Wednesday, April 7, 1976

Albert Thibault, Acting Desk Officer, Nepal, says he had a call from Ambassador Maytag wondering:

- (1) Whether April 30 would be a better night for the Buchens to attend her dinner party? and
- (2) Whether a brief call on the President is being worked out? She, of course, would like Mr. B. to accompany her should anything work out.

She is most anxious to have the Buchens as dinner guest and hopes something can be worked out for the 30th.

The President has reviewed your letter of April 1 extending to him and Mrs. Ford an invitation to be the honored guests at the dedication and unveiling ceremonies to be held in Independence, Missouri on May 8, 1976. The ceremonies, as you have described them, relate to the statue of former President Harry S. Truman which your Committee has commissioned as part of the National Bicentennial observance.

The President is delighted to accept this invitation and has arranged to have the occasion noted on his long-range schedule.

I assume that you will keep the President's Scheduling Office advised of any further developments and that when the time for the President's appearance draws near definitive arrangements can be made for his participation.

Attached is an original of a letter addressed to the President from the Harry S. Truman Statue Committee. This involves a proposed activity for the President next year in connection with the National Bicentennial observance.

Ed McCabe hand delivered this letter to me asking whether I would check on the likelihood of the President giving favorable consideration to this request.

The Committee proposes to send letters to Senators Symington and Eagleton and Representative William J. Randall asking that they urge the President to honor this request. However, Ed may be able to influence the efforts by the Committee to push this participation if we should determine that the President would not be able to fit this appearance into his schedule.

Your advice will be appreciated so that I may be able to respond to Ed McCabe, and I presume you will take care of processing the request from Dr. Jonas.

Dear Mr. President,

Dedication and unveiling ceremonies for the only full figure statue in the United States of former President Harry S. Truman will be held in Independence, Missouri, on May 8, 1976, Mr. Truman's 92nd birthday anniversary, as a part of the National Bicentennial observance.

I therefore consider it a great honor and privilege to extend to you and Mrs. Ford our most cordial invitation to be the honored guests on this occasion.

The Harry S. Truman Statue Committee was formed nearly one year ago when a group of leading citizens throughout the nation became aware of the fact that no full figure statue of President Truman existed in the United States.

In cooperation with Mrs. Truman and Mrs. Margaret Daniel, the committee commissioned a prominent American sculptor, Mr. Gilbert Franklin, of Providence, Rhode Island to create the nine foot statue depicting President Truman in the striding pose characteristic of his daily morning walks both in Washington and in Independence.

Our nationwide drive for funds has received favorable individual corporate and organizational support throughout the United States from those who share in our enthusiasm for this tribute.

The statue is to be located near the entrance to the old Jackson County Courthouse in proximity to the office and courtroom occupied by Mr. Truman when he served as a member, and later, Presiding Judge of the Jackson County Court.

The dedication and unveiling will be the highlight of the annual "Truman Week" ceremonies here as well as other major events being planned by both the Independence and Missouri Bicentennial Commissions.

Dear Mr Buchen:

We have received information regarding the meeting of the Foreign Policy Association to be held in Washington from Sunday, April 25th through Wednesday, April 28th.

The purpose of this national meeting will be to present a consensus regarding various foreign policy decisions before members of the House and Senate Foreign Relations Committees. The consensus has been arrived at following a series of local discussions throughout the United States.

Here in Western Michigan the project has been under the direction of John Schneider who is a most enthusiastic member of the World Affairs Council. He will be representing the Council at the Washington meeting and will be the spokesman for the local project.

It is expected that Mr Schneider will be named to the board of directors of the Council at the annual meeting of the organization in May.

If, during his stay in Washington, your schedule and that of President Ford would allow a very brief meeting at the White House it would be a signal honor for both Mr Schneider and the Council.

We will greatly appreciate your interest in Mr Schneider's Washington visit and we are very honored to have three members of the Grand Rapids World Affairs Council in such high offices.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

MIKE DUVAL

FROM:

PHILIP BUCHEN P.

SUBJECT:

Activities by the President

As the President goes into each State starting with Nebraska, I suggest that he be briefed about the appointments he has made during his Administration who come from that State. This information will enable the President to identify these individuals in his remarks to different audiences, giving the city in the State from which they come and their previous principal positions with that State.

Also, I would suggest that on each trip the President should take with him certain of the appointees he has made from the State where he is to appear. He would then be in a position to introduce these appointees to his audiences, and their presence with the President would lead to photographs and publicity which reach people throughout the State.

One unique asset the President has is the bright and capable executive team which he has in place and to which he can point with pride. Moreover, the pride he has in his appointees, when expressed within the States from which they come, will generate a feeling of pride among the citizens of that State. Attention has been called to new appointments made from particular States but we have so far not sufficiently publicized previous appointments made from the States in which the President is appearing.

Even though the appointed individuals from a particular State may not have had great prominence there, the President by mentioning them or introducing them will give them prominence and will evoke interest that they do serve in his Administration. The result will also help counteract the growing feeling that Washington and the people there are separate from, and heedless of, the interests and concerns of people in the rest of the country. The more the President can emphasize that he has qualified people in the Administration who are not old-time Washington bureaucrats but who have recently come to Government from private life in the various States, the more people will feel a sense of identification with the Ford Administration.

As a starter for implementing this proposal, I have attached at TAB A from Douglas Bennett material dealing with appointees from Nebraska. It may be desirable, even within the short time left, to invite one or more of these people to accompany the President on his Nebraska trip.

Douglas should be asked to provide similar information for all the States which the President will be visiting and plans should be made to select and invite those who should accompany him. In addition, for West Virginia, we may want to get out before next Tuesday publicity about people from there whom the President has appointed.

My Dear Mr. President:

I have the honor, Mr. President, of speaking for all of our judges in inviting you to participate in our Third Annual Judicial Conference, at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, D. C., on May 10, 1976.

Your presence with us would add immeasurably to the Conference and to its purpose, the improvement of the administration of justice in the fields of international trade, patents, trademarks, and customs.

We are aware of the monumental tasks confronting you and of the incessant demands upon your time, but we are hopeful that you can squeeze us in, for a few moments at least, on May 10. We would be overjoyed, of course, if you could be our Luncheon Speaker. We would be equally honored if you find it only possible to drop by and merely wish us well, as our luncheon guest or at anytime between 9:30 and 4:30 on May 10.

Notification of your decision to visit us will be welcome at anytime, up to and including the day of the Conference itself.

I beg the liberty of enclosing a fact sheet on our Judicial Conferences and await your decision with cheerful expectation.

FIRST ANNUAL JUDICIAL CONFERENCE:

Date: April 30, 1974

Place: Statler-Hilton, Washington, D.C.

Attendance: 600

Luncheon

Speaker: Senator Roman Hruska

The attendance of 600 lawyers from throughout the country at this first Judicial Conference in the 65-year history of the Court made it the largest judicial conference in the land. It also produced the largest gathering of customs lawyers in history. The Chief Justice dropped by and wished us well during the morning session.

SECOND ANNUAL JUDICIAL CONFERENCE:

Date: May 29, 1975

Place: Sheraton-Park, Washington, D. C.

Attendance: 814

Luncheon

Speaker: J. Fellers, Pres. American Bar. Association

With even greater attendance, the Conference remained the largest. The Chief Justice and three Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, the Deputy Attorney General, the Commissioner of Customs and the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks were at the head table for lunch. The Chief Justice gave a greeting prior to Mr. Fellers' talk. The Chairman of the International Trade Commission, all Federal Judges in Washington (save two) and high level members of the Executive Departments were our guests for lunch.

THIRD ANNUAL JUDICIAL CONFERENCE:

Date: May 10, 1976

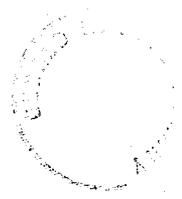

Place: Sheraton-Park, Washington, D. C.

Attendance: (expected) 1,000

Luncheon

Speaker: To be determined

The Chief Justice and the other VIP guests of last year will again be invited. Work is underway with the State Department toward the attendance of counter-part international trade, customs, patent and trademark judges and officials from England, Germany and Japan.

Dear Judge Markey:

Many thanks for your letter of February 3 in which you express your interest in having the President address the Third Annual Judicial Conference of the U. S. Court of Customs and Patent Appeals.

As you probably realize, the President's schedule during the coming ~~months~~ involves unusually heavy demands on his time. However, I know that the people in a position to help arrange his overall schedule will give careful consideration to your invitation and will advise you as soon as possible as to whether the President can respond favorably.

Sincerely,

Philip W. Buchen
Counsel to the President

NOTE: If it is not possible for the President to accept this invitation, I recommend that he send a message to be read at the Conference.

Honorable Philip W. Buchen
Counsel to the President

Dear Mr. Buchen:

In accord with your generous suggestion, I enclose a copy of our letter to the President regarding our Third Annual Judicial Conference. We are neophytes when it comes to inviting Presidents and hope you can forgive any shortcomings in the letter.

I also enclose a copy of the Proceedings of our first conference. Pages 172-174 give a flavor of the Court. We have not yet received those of our second conference, but will forward a copy when it comes in.

Our main hope, of course, is that the President will consent to be our Luncheon Speaker. With exports-imports rising from about $15 billion in 1956 to about $100 billion in 1975, with the International Trade Commission newly launched under the Trade Act of 1974, and with apparent foreign concern over anti-dumping and countervailing duty actions, it may be that Treasury would view the Conference as an appropriate forum for a Presidential statement.

Though our letter refers to a luncheon speech or good wishes, we would naturally welcome any remarks of the President at any time during the day.

We will be prepared to welcome the President at any time he decides to come. About 1 April, we must begin to line up the luncheon speaker, but I'm sure whomever we engage will be pleased to step aside if the President decides after 1 April to be our speaker.

Most appreciatively,

Howard T. Markley

The President
The White House

My Dear Mr. President:

I have the honor, Mr. President, of speaking for all of our judges in inviting you to participate in our Third Annual Judicial Conference, at the Sheraton Park Hotel in Washington, D. C., on May 10, 1976.

Your presence with us would add immeasurably to the Conference and to its purpose, the improvement of the administration of justice in the fields of international trade, patents, trademarks, and customs.

We are aware of the monumental tasks confronting you and of the incessant demands upon your time, but we are hopeful that you can squeeze us in, for a few moments at least, on May 10. We would be overjoyed, of course, if you could be our Luncheon Speaker. We would be equally honored if you find it only possible to drop by and merely wish us well, as our luncheon guest or at anytime between 9:30 and 4:30 on May 10.

Notification of your decision to visit us will be welcome at any time, up to and including the day of the Conference itself.

I beg the liberty of enclosing a fact sheet on our Judicial Conferences and await your decision with cheerful expectation.

Respectfully,

Enclosure

MEMORANDUM FOR PHIL BUCHEN

SUBJECT: Visit of King and Queen of Spain

This is in response to your memorandum of April 16 advising of the Spanish Ambassador's interest in firming up the schedule for King Juan Carlos' visit this June.

The Ambassador had made this interest known to the State Department and a number of White House offices at the time. The President has since taken the decision to participate in a return dinner at the Spanish Embassy on June 3 and this decision has been conveyed to Ambassador Alba by the Department of State. Needless to say, the Ambassador is very pleased.

MEMORANDUM FOR: BRENT SCOWCROFT
SUBJECT: Visit of the King and Queen of Spain

Ambassador Alba is becoming somewhat uneasy about not having enough time to prepare for the event on the evening of June 3 which would be in response to the State dinner being given by the President on June 2.

The Ambassador realizes that it may not be possible for the President to take time for a return dinner, but he would like to be able to settle upon one of the following options:

1. A return dinner with both the President and Mrs. Ford; or
2. A return dinner with Mrs. Ford present, or
3. A return dinner with the Vice President and Mrs. Rockefeller taking the place of the President and Mrs. Ford; or
4. A reception that the President and Mrs. Ford would attend briefly; or
5. A reception that Mrs. Ford would attend; or
6. A reception which the Vice President and Mrs. Rockefeller would attend in place of the President and Mrs. Ford.

For options 1, 2, or 3, the invitations would be for a dinner "In honor of the President of the United States and Mrs. Gerald R. Ford," even though either or both may not be able to attend.

Under options 4, 5, or 6, the invitations would be similar but would, of course, specify that it is a reception. The Ambassador points out the long lead time he will need to get invitations printed and mailed.

If you can provide me with the information, I would like to pass it on to him.

MEMORANDUM FOR: WARREN HENDRICKS

SUBJECT: Award Dinner at the University of Detroit

Upon arriving for this dinner on April 30, I found that I was not supposed to be a stand-in for the President to receive the award in his behalf. The symbol of the award consists of a substantial medal attached to a decorative neck-ribbon. It is the desire of Father Carron, President of the University, to deliver the award personally to the President at some time in the future.

This, I would suggest that you make arrangements for this event at a time convenient to both the President and Father Carron.

Notwithstanding my limited role, I enjoyed appearing at this event. I was invited to give a few remarks to the audience and did read the message from the President.
