FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

EXCHANGE OF LETTERS BETWEEN
THE PRESIDENT AND HENRY E. PETERSEN
ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL, CRIMINAL DIVISION
U. S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Dear Mr. Petersen:

It is with deep regret and even deeper appreciation of your contributions to government that I accept your resignation as Assistant Attorney General, effective December 31, 1974. Your three decades at the Department of Justice represent the highest standards of both the Federal career service and appointive office. The record of those years is one in which you can take great pride -- it is a record of unique achievement. Your ability, integrity, candor and good humor will be sorely missed but fondly remembered by those with whom you served. More importantly, you leave with the respect and admiration of all who were privileged to be your colleagues.

As you move on to private life, you have my best wishes for continued success and satisfaction.

Sincerely,

JERRY FORD

(MORE)

Dear Mr. President:

After 27 years in the service of the Department of Justice I have decided to submit my resignation as Assistant Attorney General to take effect at the close of business on December 31, 1974.

Needless to say I reach this decision after considerable thought and not without some sense of regret. I am keenly aware that I have been most fortunate in having the opportunity to serve the Government of the United States. I recognize too that my duties with the Department of Justice have given me an excellent opportunity to observe at first hand the concern for fairness and due process of law which is the hallmark of the Government's pursuit of litigation. Clearly, it has been a privilege to practice law as an attorney for the Government.

To you Mr. President I want to express my gratitude for the honor which has been accorded to me and to extend my very best wishes for the success of your efforts in behalf of our country.

Sincerely,

Henry E. Petersen

Hon. Harold R. Tyler, Jr.
Deputy Attorney General of the United States
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C.

Dear Judge Tyler:

The resume I sent you last Friday reflects that I was born in St. Louis, Missouri, but does not reflect the fact that my present ties there remain extensive. Much of my family lives in St. Louis. My father, Joseph H. Grand, has actively practiced law in St. Louis since 1919 and is currently counsel to Bryan, Cave, McPheeters & McRoberts, 500 North Broadway, St. Louis, Missouri. My sister, Judith Rubenstein, and her family also live in St. Louis. Her husband, Jerome Rubenstein, is a member of the same firm.

All of my schooling prior to college took place in the mid-West. I attended schools in St. Louis through tenth grade and completed my secondary schooling at Western Reserve Academy in Hudson, Ohio, from which I was graduated in 1951.

I continue to maintain close ties with my family in St. Louis and visit there frequently. Although I have practiced law in New York City since my graduation from Law School, it is by no means certain that I will not one day return to St. Louis to practice law.

I note that my resume does not refer to my military service. I served honorably in the United States Army from September 1955 to August 1957, during which time I spent sixteen months stationed in Uijongbu, Korea. I entered the Army as a Private E-2 and was discharged as a Specialist Third Class.

I shall be happy to furnish any additional information which you may desire.

Respectfully yours,

Paul R. Grand

Dear Judge Tyler:

Enclosed is a copy of my resume. I am deeply flattered that you should include me among those being considered as Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Criminal Division. I have not listed references on the enclosed resume. If you think it appropriate at this stage, I shall be happy to furnish the names of those United States District Judges who, in addition to yourself, have extensive familiarity with my work.

Marshal Palmer Evicted From His Office

By Winston Groom
Washington Star Staff Writer

Chief Deputy U.S. Marshal James F. Palmer has been unceremoniously evicted from his office at the U.S. District Courthouse here by fellow marshals acting at the behest of Chief Judge George L. Hart Jr.

Hart, whose tenure as chief judge ends today, had ordered that Palmer not be allowed to enter the courthouse on official business after Hart and Palmer became embroiled in a bitter dispute over Palmer's handling of a cellblock takeover in the building a year ago.

Hart's order forbidding Palmer access to the building was challenged by Palmer's attorneys but the U.S. Court of Appeals ruled last week that it had no jurisdiction in the matter.

PALMER, however, continued to use his spacious offices on the ground floor of the courthouse at Constitution Avenue and John Marshall Place NW until about 5 p.m. Wednesday.

At that time, according to Palmer's attorney, Howard law professor Herbert O. Reid, Palmer was summoned to a meeting in the office of the head of the U.S. marshal's office at the Justice Department to discuss his job.

When he returned, Reid said, Palmer's office had been stripped of all his personal effects and he was notified that they had been "relocated" in another office at the D.C. Superior Court several blocks away.

HART yesterday denied accusations that he had "stripped" Palmer's office.

"Can you imagine me going down there and stripping his office?" Hart asked. "What would I look like, doing something like that?"

Asked if he had given the order for Palmer's office to be closed down, Hart replied that he had not given such an order directly but that if Palmer was back in the building, he was in violation of Hart's order and should have been removed.

"I haven't any objection to his office here — only to his presence," Hart said.

"I had heard he came back in the building on his own. I said I didn't want him back. I would assume that whatever action was taken was taken to get him out."

PALMER'S problems with Hart began last July when two prisoners awaiting hearings, Frank Gorham and Robert Jones, seized several hostages and held them at gunpoint in the court cellblock for four tense days.
