REMARKS OF VICE PRESIDENT GERALD R. FORD
AT THE ANNUAL DINNER OF THE WHITE HOUSE
CORRESPONDENTS ASSOCIATION

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 4, 1974

President Deakin, Former President Knap, Distinguished Guests

and Members of the White House Correspondents Association: I thank you for honoring me with your invitation and for this excellent dinner. Lately I have been eating at so many banquets I am beginning to think I have a tapeworm. I say "tapeworm" because they bring me another course every 18 1/2 minutes.

Again, I want to express my appreciation for this model of the Liberty Bell of the great Commonwealth of Virginia where I have the honor to live. At least I am living there until I can find a "plumber" to make me a pass-key to Admiral Zumwalt's House.

This bell symbolizes the beginning of our celebration of 200 years of a free press in America. I commend your participation in the Bicentennial. I greatly enjoy these reminders of our country's inspiring beginnings. In fact, I am much more comfortable with the Old Republic than with the New Republic.

I am told that the White House Correspondents Association and I are the same age. That's quite a coincidence, being just the same age as your organization, and I hasten to congratulate you on your 39th Anniversary.

Although I know this evening is for play rather than work I do have a small news announcement to make. I have listened to the tape. I mean, of course, the tape of what I said Wednesday night in North Carolina, when (Phil Jones?) asked me how I could comment on a 1350 page transcript without having read nine-tenths of it. And I answered:

"Well, I've had the benefit of the scrutinizing eyes of our news media who always put the worst foot forward."

Well, I'm still learning my new job.

And one thing I've learned is that you can't hear a smile on tape or read a grin in type. I'm sure those of you who were with me know I was trying to answer a little needle with another little needle and didn't mean anything mean. But I've since been scolded by Barbara Walters and others who weren't there and I want to set the record straight right now.

I do depend heavily on the news media for my information, and I find it usually accurate and workmanlike, considering the pressures of competition and deadlines. Now, if you newsmen can make corrections and retractions so can a Vice President, and I ask you all to remove my "worst foot" from wherever I put it, and please replace it with "unintelligible," "inaudible" or, if you must, "expletive deleted."

To shift for just a few minutes to a more serious mood, I am trying as our first "instant Vice President" to continue the same open, honest, and I may say, pleasant relationship with the press that I have had throughout 25 years in the Congress. I don't believe I am doing things very differently than I always have, except that a lot more of you seem to be a lot more interested in me and in what I do and say.

I not only believe in the First Amendment and all the rest of the Constitution I am sworn to uphold, but I believe a climate of trust and understanding between the government and the people is essential if our system is to work. All of you have much to do with that climate and so, of course, do those of us who temporarily hold high public office.

Personally I do not put as much emphasis on public relations and I do on fundamental human relations and I don't like to categorize "the press" or "the media" as if they were somehow a different species from other people. I like to consider every person I know on his or her own merits and to treat them as I would hope to be treated if our jobs were reversed. I have had a lot of adversaries in my political life, but no enemies that I can remember.

I am here tonight because I hope and believe that evenings of good humor and fellowship such as these pull the sting of self-righteousness and self-importance out of government officials and maybe out of those who cover them as well. It shows the health and strength of our uniquely American system when we can laugh at our own expense, at each other's expense, and best of all at the editorial auditor's expense.

Thank you very much.

ROY CLARK

DIANA TRASK

THE SPURRLOWS

BUCK TRENT

One of the great banjo artists in the country, Buck was featured for 11 years on the "Porter Wagoner" TV show from Nashville. Now Buck is one of the featured performers on "The Roy Clark Show".

BUCK TRENT

This exciting group appears on Roy Clark shows from coast to coast, including Roy's sell-out Las Vegas appearances at the Frontier Hotel and at Harrah's in Reno.

A reporter for the St. Louis Post Dispatch summed it up in these words. "There is a high-energy, sweatin', shoutin' high decibel joy in the Spurrrows."

THE SPURRLOWS

DIANA TRASK

A Sensation in Concert

The critics acclaim her unique, dynamic vocal interpretations... Fellow performers agree, she's a tough act to follow.

A Sensation in Las Vegas

Diana stops the show at each performance. Recent engagements at the Frontier and Sands Hotels has resulted in a long Vegas contract. They love her! You will too.

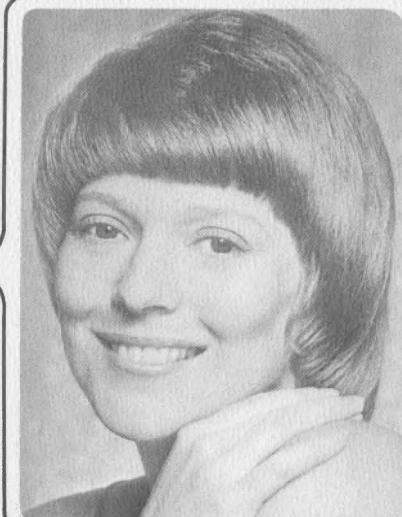

A Sensation on Record

Diana's singles and albums always get fast chart action, records on both the pop and C&W charts. Cases in point: "It's A Man's World" • "Say When" • "When I Get My Hands On You" • Lean It All On Me"

Major TV Credits

"Hee Haw" (multiple) • Jack Parr Show • Merv Griffin Show • Dean Martin's "Music Country" NBC • "How the West Was Lost" (Special with Charlie Callas) • "Love American Style" • Tonight Show • Midnight Special

DIANA TRASK

Big records in the charts! Star of the top rated "Hee Haw" television show, seen weekly by 37 million people!

Roy Clark has been voted "Entertainer of the Year" by the Country Music Association, as well as the Academy of Country Music. AGVA voted Roy "Country Music Star of the Year."

He has made guest appearances on every major TV show, as well as guest hosting on the "Tonight Show", NBC-TV, and "Midnight Special", NBC-TV.

Roy Clark definitely is a . . .

Superstar Super Picker

"Honeymoon Feelin'" • "Somewhere Between Love and Tomorrow" • "Ghost Riders In The Sky" • "Come Live With Me" • "Thank God and Greyhound" • "I Never Picked Cotton" • "Yesterday, When I Was Young" are a few of Roy's top hits, not only in the Country and Western charts but have been consistently in the pop charts as well. His appearances at the Frontier Hotel and Sands Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada, have been record breaking, as well as appearances at Harrah's Reno-Lake Tahoe, Cheyenne Frontier Days, San Antonio Livestock Show, Kansas City Starlight Theatre, Hollywood Bowl and just recently he shattered the attendance record at the Great Plains Country Fair, Great Bend, Kansas with a crowd of over 70,000 people for one performance.
