MEMORANDUM FOR THE VICE PRESIDENT

FROM: WARREN S. RUSTAND

SUBJECT: FOURTH ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT FOR THE BENEFIT OF HEROES, INC. ON JULY 16, 1974

BACKGROUND:

You have accepted the Honorary Sponsorship of this Golf Tournament.

The organization, HEROES, INC., which will benefit from this event, was started in 1964. HEROES, INC. provides for the widows and orphans of law enforcement officers and firemen of the entire metropolitan area who have given their lives in the line of duty. HEROES stands for HONOR EVERY RESPONSIBLE OFFICER'S ETERNAL SACRIFICE.

It is a non-profit organization of 150 charter members who are themselves substantial contributors to the cause and who coordinate fund-raising activities when they are needed. These 150 members are all business and professional leaders of the communities in the national capitol area. HEROES, INC., has no permanent office or paid staff. A large amount of the organization's operational activities are donated by its members to minimize expenses.

This Golf Tournament is one method they employ of obtaining funds for its work. Last year, over $23,000 was raised through this Tournament.

The Trilateral Commission is a unique and important undertaking in world affairs:

- It has won the endorsement of the principal political leaders of the three regions;
- It has been described with approval by Newsweek, The Japan Times, Le Figaro, and other major international journals.

More than merely a round of meetings or a series of studies, the Trilateral Commission is actively engaged in policy development. In the words of The Economist:

The men organizing the commission want it to take new looks at things. But not for abstract purposes: . . . they want to bring about action, and hence they want the new body to be a marriage of the intellectual and the influential. (May 5, 1973)

The work of the Trilateral Commission will be organized on a truly trilateral basis, with Japan participating as an equal partner with Europe and North America. As an editorial on the Commission in The Christian Science Monitor stated:

The interests of North America, Western Europe and Japan now interlock in so many fields . . . It is essential for the future of the Western world that these three advanced industrial regions coordinate their policies and learn to work together. It is essential that Japan be treated as a full and equal partner. . . . It is good to hear that a group of distinguished citizens from all three areas is getting together . . . (May 12, 1973)

Although a number of parliamentarians will participate, the Trilateral Commission will remain a private effort. In this regard, James Reston of The New York Times stated that the Trilateral Commission . . .

. . . will hope to demonstrate through the more flexible actions of private citizens that more progress can be made on . . . emerging common problems by working on them together than by trying to deal separately with the consequences of nationalistic mistakes. (March 2, 1973)
