Wednesday, June 4, 1975

6:00-7:00 p.m. (1 hour)

The Cabinet Room

From: Max L. Friedersdorf M.L.F.

I. PURPOSE

To report on the President's trip to Europe.

II. BACKGROUND, PARTICIPANTS AND PRESS PLAN

A. Background: The President has just returned from an important foreign policy trip to Europe and this will be his first opportunity to brief the bipartisan leaders on results of the talks.

B. Participants: See Tab A

C. Press Plan:

Announce to the Press as a Presidential report on the European trip. Press and White House photographers.

III. TALKING POINTS

1. We regret the inconvenient meeting hour today, but because of our late return last night and the trip to West Point today, this was the first opportunity to get together.
2. Because of the lateness, we would like to hold the discussion to an hour if possible in order not to detain the leaders any longer than necessary.
3. Now, we will give you a report on the trip to Europe.
