MEMO TO: THE PRESIDENT
FROM: JO WILSON JW
RE: My new assignment.

During the past three weeks rumors have run rampant about the status of those of us on your legislative staff here at the Capitol. One day rumor has had it that there is no reason for any of us to be concerned about our continued employment on your staff. Then a day or two later rumors have filled the air which have created all sorts of doubts and uncertainty.

Tuesday Charlene reported to the White House for her new assignment, and, when Anne returned today from her Labor Day holiday, she, too, reported to the White House.

Based on the assurances of your memo to me of August 9 and Bob Hartmann's at the staff meeting, all of us had anticipated that our new assignments would be made relatively soon. I had assumed that my new assignment with you would be in the Congressional Relations area and had expected my transfer would be accomplished at the same time the others from your Minority Leader's staff were transferred.

This is all very bewildering, and I would appreciate it very much if someone would communicate with me and let me know what my new assignment on your staff is and when I can expect to be transferred.
