Dear Mary:

It has just occurred to me that Betty and I have not thanked you for the superb wedding photograph albums which you so thoughtfully made up for us. Hopefully, our tardiness in this instance can be understood, but nevertheless it is embarrassing. Both Betty and I hope you will forgive us in this instance.

The album is simply a wonderful reminder of a perfect occasion and one which we wish to remember forever. We are most grateful for your thoughtfulness and your assistance.

You certainly do excellent work, Mary, and we are most appreciative.

Sincerely,

Miss Mary Themo

Dave Kennerly and Ric are doing superior jobs. I just hope you don't feel I have unfairly undercut your own fine organization.

Despite a few problems things are gradually getting on track. We are currently working darn hard on some big tasks both at home and abroad, but I'm optimistic as always that they are solvable.

Thanks again, and I hope to see you again some day soon.

Sincerely,
