Dedication of the New Department of Labor Building. The President's appearance would consist of a cornerstone laying ceremony and then brief remarks. The Department of Labor has invited labor management and governmental officials from around the United States and the Department is extremely anxious for Presidential participation.

Executive Committee of the EPPB. This is the regular weekly meeting which was moved from Tuesday to Friday due to Secretary Simon's trip to the Soviet Union. Initially, there was thought there would not be a meeting this week but now that Secretary Simon will be returning Thursday, Bill Seidman has requested a meeting for Friday. Please be apprised that the labor building dedication would be taking place at same time. (The dedication proposal has gone into the President.)
