MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 11, 1974

MR. [Signature]

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

JACK MARSH

[Signature]

This morning I met with the SOS/Chowder and Marching Club at their weekly breakfast. Some of the matters that came up might be of interest to you.

1. House Senate Republican leaders would like to meet with you more frequently, perhaps bi-weekly. There was general concurrence on this suggestion by Jack Edwards.
2. More frequent meetings by Republican members with White House senior staff in small groups. Cederberg suggested.
3. Provide some mechanics for greater input of ideas into Administration proposals and policies from the Hill. I suggested to Jim Broyhill who proposed this that they make submissions to the State of the Union address.
4. Desire to have Bill Walker meet with this group to discuss the Administration's personnel policies. They have great interest in this subject and do not fully understand how the system works.
5. A briefing on the proposed reorganization of the White House so as to know whom to contact with special ideas of interest.
6. Suggestion that you engage in some structured form of regular communication to the Congress and the people of an educational type to provide background for programs and decisions by the Administration.
