David Dennis

Thanks President for his telegram after the recent election; will always value their friendship; will continue his strong support of the Republican Party.

Senate

Alan Cranston	Requests the President's personal review of the imminent decision by the Department of Defense in awarding a contract for the proposed new air combat fighter. Understands that a twin engine plane is far more acceptable to many other countries than the single engine aircraft. Thus, the development of the twin engine plane would deter other countries from looking outside the U. S. to meet their needs. Therefore, recommends awarding contract to Northrop.
James McClure	Concerned by reports that in the President's message when he signed H. R. 16596 he requested that the appropriation for Title III of the bill be transferred to Title I; urges immediate reconsideration. Says that he and other concerned Members of the Senate and House attempted to meet with the President or his assistants to explain the amendment; believes that if the President has time to see the Black Caucus, he should have time to see representatives of the Republican Conference with a major economic plank.
Walter Mondale	Recommends that Raymond M. Taylor be appointed to the staff of the Library of Congress.
James Abourezk	Urges the President to sign S. 4206, which would raise the dairy price support level from the current 73 per cent to 85 per cent of parity.
Herman Talmadge	Recommends that Richard D. Hill be appointed to the EFTS Commission.
Dewey Bartlett	Recommends that Beverly Young be appointed to the National Advisory Committee for Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.
Robert Byrd	Recommends that Elizabeth V. Hallanan be appointed to the Federal Power Commission.

Asks that the President keep in mind that the person named to replace Ambassador Eberle must have, or build, a close working relationship with the Congress, in order to get Congressional approval in places where legislation is required.
