The President
The White House

Dear Mr. President:

Saturday afternoon you requested some information on former Governor of Tennessee, Winfield Dunn.

He is now a member of the board of Hospital Corporation of America and I understand has a small retainer from them. In addition, he is opening an office as a consultant and seemingly is looking for clients.

His address is:

First American Center
Box 12
Nashville, Tennessee

Telephone: 612/244-1200

During his administration, our people found him intelligent, charismatic, very capable, and having a most attractive family.

I hope the above is the information you sought.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Frank", written over a horizontal line.

Frank P. Jones, Jr.

P.S. To say I enjoyed the golf game Saturday would be the greatest understatement. It was a thrill and an honor and I thank you again.

MEMORANDUM FOR: WILLIAM N. WALKER
FROM: JERRY H. JONES

The attached letter was returned in the President's outbox with the following notation:

-- Commodities.

I believe he probably meant that Dunn be considered for the Commodities Board. Please follow-up with the appropriate action.

Thank you.
