Dear Mrs. Karasiewicz,

This will respond to your letter requesting information concerning the South-Davis Tech game of 1931.

I did not play in that game, so I cannot give you any of the details. I played in the 1928, 1929 and 1930 games.

I do however, remember your father Chet Wybranowski and agree that he was a fine football player. I hope you will extend to him my best wishes for an enjoyable retirement. Please tell him I appreciate his support over the years.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

GERALD R. FORD

Dear Mr. President,

I know this is a very unusual letter and it is hard to put into words, but I have a most unusual request to make of you.

I don't want to lead you on to pretend you remember, but it would mean so much to me if you would tell me all you could remember about the Smith-Davis Peck game of 1931.

My father, Chet Wybranowski, was left out and as best as he can recall Davis Peck won 13 to 7. What I particularly want to know, and I want this answered by you not some form letter by your secretary, is do you remember Chet Wybranowski.

It would mean more than you know to a whole family if you replied honestly, which I know you are, whether you remember or not.

I realize that this letter must seem "funny" but I can assure you it is most serious in its intent. My father is now retired - 62 yrs old - and I know that he has had the greatest respect for you all thru the football and congressional years.

Please don't make up a story that you remember. If you don't, just say so and I'll make the right decision on what to tell Dad.

He doesn't think you'll even answer this letter, let alone remember him as a football player. (Although he was pretty good). Thank you for your time and effort to run this country.
