THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 23, 1975

Dear Al:

Thank you very much for your letter of May 30.

As we discussed, I would indeed like to join you in a golf game at a time when my schedule permits and arrangements convenient to you can be made.

Although I greatly appreciate your generous offer to have me become the first member and an honorary member of your golf club at Nemacolin, I must regrettably decline. Apart from maintaining those memberships in golf clubs to which I belonged before becoming President, I have thought it inappropriate to add similar memberships, even on an honorary basis, while I am in office.

Sincerely,

Jerry Ford

Mr. W. F. Rockwell, Jr.
600 Grant Street
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15218

*P.S. Can you play with me at Nemacolin?
J.*
