SENATE

- 1S Edward Brooke Telegram expressing birthday greetings.
- 2S Hugh Scott Writes in support of request of the Order of Redmen to present an honorary membership certificate.
- 3S John Tower In support of request of the American-Israel Chamber of Commerce for a Presidential presentation of its "E" award.
- 4S James O. Eastland Forwards a copy of a confidential print of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security entitled "The Schoolstoppers Textbook," a handbook for school disruption and violence. The Subcommittee was recently advised of this handbook which is being offered for sale through the mails and felt it imperative to have copies printed and made available to members of Congress and the Administration.
- 5S Edward Brooke Asks that arrangements be made for the President to receive the 1976 National Sickle Cell Anemia Poster Child during the month of September.
- 6S Paul Fannin
Barry Goldwater Endorse Sheriff Phillip Jordan for appointment as United States Marshal for the District of Arizona.
- 7S James Buckley Telegram - "The Soviet Union is once again bringing pressures to bear on the International Olympic Committee to deny press credentials to Radio Free Europe. I strongly urge you to protest this distortion of the spirit of the games...."
- 8S John Sparkman Requests statements, under provisions of the Arms Control and Disarmament Act, "analyzing the impact of such programs on arms control and disarmament policy and negotiations" to cover programs on which the Congress acted without waiting for this information. The Congress should review these reports to determine if they are comprehensive and responsive before the departments prepare reports for timely submission next year.
- 9S Herman Talmadge Requests birthday message for Mrs. Bella Boyd Dawson, who will celebrate her 100th birthday on July 19.
