THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Jim Connor -

This is a very weak Candidate

Jim Ford

E WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 22, 1976

Dear Spencer:

The American people and the citizens of the Second District of Illinois need Spencer Leak in the U.S. Congress. I also need Spencer Leak in the Congress and am pleased and honored to endorse your candidacy. After 22 years of Democratic misrule it is time to change control of Congress. Your election will add a strong and capable Republican voice for those policies which will maintain the strength of America at home and abroad.

For two years I have stood for all the people against a vote-hungry, free-spending Democratic Congressional majority. My vetoes of irresponsible legislation have saved the taxpayers billions of dollars. On many important legislative proposals there has been total Congressional inaction.

In the 95th Congress I intend to submit a strong and balanced legislative program. It will be based upon my record of steady progress toward prosperity, peace and public trust. Your election to the Congress is vital to make this a reality.

I believe the citizens of the Second District are ready to do their share by giving you a mandate to pursue a course which will fulfill the goals of all Americans. I wish you every success and am most pleased to share a place on the ballot with you this November. I know we both can win.

Sincerely,

Mr. Spencer Leak
Republican Nominee for the United States Congress
