Dear Mr. Dixon:

You have my sincere thanks for the extremely generous support you have given to the Republican National Committee.

Thank you for your wonderful help, and I am confident that November 2 will be a banner day for Republicans from the courthouse to the White House.

With warmest personal regards,

Mr. Fitz Eugene Dixon, Jr.

Dear Dick:

I am enclosing copies of two letters to Jerry
Milbank and John Ware.

// Is there anything you can do to have the
President express his personal thanks to Fitz Eugene
Dixon?

Kindest personal regards,

Dear John:

I am enclosing a check from Fitz Eugene Dixon in the amount of $25,000 for the Republican National Committee. As you know, Fitz has been one of the most generous supporters of the Republican Party and felt he would make the contribution in this manner rather than directly to any dinner committees.

Will you please forward this to the proper person in Washington.

Sincerely,

ALLjr:klm

Dear Jerry:

As part of my assignment as a member of the Republican National Finance Committee and also as National Committeeman, I am enclosing the following checks:

Marguerite E. Baur	$350.00
Paul & Louise Kaiser	$250.00
Paul & Louise Kaiser	$250.00
Philip J. Baur, Jr.	$500.00
James F. Junge	$1,000.00

In a conversation with Fitz Dixon the other evening, he agreed to make a contribution mentioned in the enclosed letter. I am processing it through John Ware inasmuch as Fitz would prefer to have it handled that way, rather than through the dinner. I did not want you to think he was shirking his responsibility.

Incidentally, Mr. Dixon is one of the best contributors to the Republican Party. It seems to me that a personal thank you from the President for his support is in order.

Sincerely,

ALLjr:klm
