I can do no better than to offer you the counsel ~~which~~ of which ~~the~~ the late Adlai Stevenson was fond. It ~~was found on his bedside table~~ is contained ~~in~~ in a printed page found on his bedside table in New York after he died. ~~It reads in part:~~ Particularly suitable for members of Congress, it reads in part:

"Go placidly amid the noise and the haste and learn what peace there may be in silence. ~~xxx~~Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. ~~xxx~~If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for ~~there~~ always ~~there~~ there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself.

"Be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, keep peace with ~~tax~~ your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world."

Prayer Breakfast

also Feb. 8, 1967

MICHIGAN.

- Prayer Breakfast -

After tension of last few days

Preceding the problems of next weeks with travel problems,

I retreat into the quotation from the Bible which has stuck with me.

Trust in the Lord etc.

Innumerable incidents Military activities Family business.

INCIDENT.

This is One Man's Way - Each has his own

We believe in God

I have faith in the Teachings of the Bible

I desperately want my children, my colleagues, my country & the World to do the same

At the same time & in the context of what we are talking about today
I feel it appropriate to quote

Aristocracy is of the soul not of the cloth. - What does this mean -

In the context of this discussion/

It doesn't mean going to church regularly without the necessary substance

It doesn't mean the ability to quote from the bible without translating those words into action

DOING / NOT SAYING

It doesn't mean all of the other things that may create the surface but not the substance

What I have liked about the Prayer Breakfast group is -

It is a quite personal dedicated group.

Prayer breakfast

Proverb 3 chapter verses 5 and 6

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

Faith / a Trust / a spiritual experience

Prayer Breakfast Bill Peterson--friend in Michigan---writer, philosopher

"Sooner or later, a man if he is wise discovers that life is a mixture of good and bad days, victory and defeat, give and take.

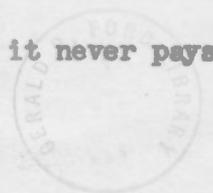

"He learns that it doesn't pay to be thin-skinned, that he should let some things go over his head like water on a duck's back.

"He learns that he who loses his temper--loses.

"He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the ~~simplest~~ easiest way to get ~~put~~ into a fight.

"He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others.

"He learns that buck-passing always turns out to be a boomerang and that it never pays!

"He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains that are as good or better, and that hard work and not cleverness is the secret of success.

"He learns that getting along with others depends 90 percent upon his own behavior.

JERRY, ~~HERE'S~~ HERE'S GOOD CLOSING PRAYER ~~FOR~~ PRAYER BREAKFAST:

O God of all creation

Grant this our one request;

Help us to build a nation

Where no man is oppressed,

And so with peace and plenty

America may be blessed.

*Tommy in the end with all things heart;
and Jean not with our understanding.
of all things acknowledge how
And he will know thy father
I would 3:56*

A long time ago I learned that a spirit of optimism--based on spiritual conviction---gives meaning and direction to living.

One particular instance stands out. It occurred during my football playing days at the University of Michigan.

We faced Coach Bernie Biermans powerful Minnesota Gophers at ~~the~~ their homecoming game. Among members of that great ^{Big Ten} team were three All Americans.

The sportswriters and all the experts figured we ^{Michigan Wolverines} didn't have a chance.

We worked out the day ~~before~~ ^{before} the game with all the spirit and optimism of winners. The great odds facing us only served to strengthen our faith that we could win that game the next day.

Well, a crowd of 60,000 saw us come out on the short end of a 34 to 0 score. But they saw a good football game. We may have lost that one, but we all were better young men for it---because we played the very best we could, ~~and~~ ^{refused to give up,} and kept our spirit of optimism.

Because ~~of~~ ^{of} the defeat I think ~~we became a better team~~ ^{we became a better team}. We accepted the 34 to 0 score without bitterness and looked ahead to next week's game and the remainder of the season....with optimism. We accepted defeat and planned on winning the next game.

After graduation, my philosophy of optimism was given a strong work-out at Yale Law School. It helped me through the rough times. Often I depended on my deep convictions when the ^{double} jobs of finishing law school while coaching football ~~appeared~~ were getting too big, too weighty, too overwhelming for me.

When the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg ~~advised~~ ^{counseled} me on the advisability of embarking on a career in politics---specifically in the Congress as a Representative from my home district in Michigan--- again I based my decision on faith.

I believe that each of us has a part in a Divinely-created plan. For a reason that is beyond me, I made the decision and was successful in winning election.

All of us that we face a great mass of confusion and strong divergent forces today. As public servants we are subjected to extreme pressures and criticism. All around us we see signs of social revolution--- irresponsible demonstrations---- rioting by outsiders who invade quiet and dignified communities---- a rising crime rate.

Our enemies abroad are generating strife, turmoil and war. We live in dangerous times.

~~And yet, I believe the darkness of the future, the uncertainties, the doubt, can be wiped away with ~~the~~ patient understanding based on belief in a Supreme plan.~~

And yet, I believe the darkness of the future, the uncertainties, the doubt, can be wiped away with ^{God's} patient understanding based on belief in a Supreme plan. Behind the dim unknown, standeth God, within the shadow, keeping watch above his own.

The capriciousness of destiny is nonsense. We are not at the mercy of accidents for there are none. Our own character ^{we must assume responsibility for} ~~make~~ or ~~break~~ us, ^{which they} ~~yet we~~ know that ^{in the background is the omnipotent hand of God.}

This is true of an individual, of a nation, of a party, of any institution.

^{with the help of God} We can build any quality into our ~~mentality~~ ^{being} by meditating upon that quality every day.

There is no true desire without faculty and no faculty without opportunity.

Consistent with God's will!

assured

When we ~~really~~ desire to be or to do something ~~it is a divine~~ we can be

God will help us sign that the ~~Supreme Power~~ God wants us to achieve ~~an accomplishment.~~ His goal.

Does mean that we will realize every
This is not ~~to be confused with passing wishes~~ ---the boy in summer wanting to be a professional baseball player and in the winter he's changed his mind and wants to be a ski champion....or his sister going to the Metropolitan opera and then wanting to be a singer and a month later reads of a woman scientist winning the Nobel prize and then thinking she wants a similar career.....these are passing ~~fancies~~ fancies.

A true desire stays. As time goes by it ~~increases~~ increases

It is steady and growing and real and we can believe that it in force. ~~It is steady and growing and real.~~ is in line with God's plan.

~~Prayer is the key to the solution.~~

~~Among the prayers that are answered is the prayer for the sick.~~

The secret of life then is to control our mental states, for if we do this the rest will follow. Man is not limited by his environment, help to

This he ~~creates~~ creates by his beliefs and feelings.

A splendid example of a person controlling his mental state by deeply ~~believing~~ believing that the will of ~~the~~ God will be done is an experience of a young couple in my home of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The man and woman had twin daughters. They were 3. One lie in a coma--a tiny child dying in a hospital bed the victim of leukemia.

Her twin sister played around the bed, climbing on her mother's lap and asking from time to time--"Is my sister going to play with me?---she's sleeping all the time."

Both parents knew that the child in a coma would be dead by morning. And they also knew the other little girl would pass away within a few weeks. Yet the mother and father were steadfast in their belief.

The courageous young father reflected the strong spiritual strength of himself and his wife when he said, "We accept this. It is His will. We must not question it. Thank God for having these children with us if even for ~~so~~ ^{short} a time."

Spiritual optimism?----- yes. With it came a great and towering strength to meet life with courage and without questioning His will---asking only that it be done.

~~Perhaps a philosophy of life that is a mixture of philosophy and a mixture of philosophy~~

A friend of mine in Michigan--- a writer, philosopher and gentle man--- ~~has~~ has expressed a philosophy I have tried to follow to the best of my ability. I am happy to share it with you.

"Sooner or later," he wrote, " a man if he is wise discovers that life is a mixture of good and bad days, victory and defeat, give and take.

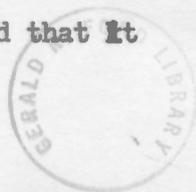

"He learns that it doesn't pay to be a ^{thin-skinned} ~~sensitive~~ soul, that he should let some things go over his head like water on a duck's back.

"He learns that he who loses his temper loses.

"He learns that carrying a chip on his shoulder is the easiest way to get into a fight.

"He learns that the quickest way to become unpopular is to carry tales and gossip about others.

"He learns that buck-passing always turns out to be a boomerang and that it never pays.

"He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains that are as good or better, and that hard work and not ~~his~~ cleverness is the secret of success."

"He learns that getting along with others depends 90 percent upon his own behavior."

standeth God... keeping watch above his own. But behind the dem. union

And I conclude with his prayer—one I have said many, many times in my church.

"Give us grateful hearts, our Father, for all thy blessings,

"And makes us mindful of the needs of others—through Jesus Christ, our Lord,---amen."
