The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

I am taking the liberty of reminding you of Public Law 85-529, 85th Congress, which designates May 1 of each year as Loyalty Day. In addition, the Act calls upon the President of the United States to issue a Proclamation urging the American people to observe Loyalty Day and requesting that flags be flown over U. S. public buildings.

It would be deeply appreciated by the National officers and the 1,800,000 members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States if this Proclamation could be issued around March 1. Our organization sponsors Loyalty Day programs throughout the nation by organizing nationwide ceremonies, meetings, parades, etc. We receive the close cooperation of all veterans groups and patriotic organizations. As part of our campaign in promoting Loyalty Day, we find the President's Proclamation is of tremendous publicity value in bringing to the people of the country the importance of Loyalty Day.

I am enclosing for your information a copy of the Proclamation issued by you last year as well as a copy of a speech prepared for use during the 1973 Program.

Thanking you for the consideration of this request at your earliest convenience and with best wishes for your continued success, I remain

Respectfully yours,

PATRICK E. CARR
Commander-in-Chief
