The President will travel to Baltimore on Friday to attend a reception with Chancellor and Mrs. Schmidt aboard the German tall ship "Gorch Fock." He will go by helicopter, departing the South Lawn at around 6 p.m. and returning shortly after 8 p.m.

The press will travel by bus, with the buses departing the Southwest Gate at about 4 p.m. A sign-up sheet will be posted following the briefing.

Q. Will Mrs. Ford accompany the President?

A. I will have to check. (FYI ONLY: She is on the schedule, but I wouldn't announce yet.)

Q. What will the coverage be on the ship?

A. There will be an expanded pool on board. And there will probably be open coverage at dockside.

Q. Will there be a pool on the helicopter?

A. We will work on that. I look for some arrangements similar to Charlottesville, where we had some poolers on one of the helicopters.

GIFT:

For the archeologically interested: the Egyptian Bicentennial gift to the US was a stela, or carved tablet of limestone, c. 1420 B.C. It was discovered in 1967 and will be displayed in the Smithsonian on the shelf right next to Gay Pirozzi's dentures...

OLYMPIC GAMES:

Nothing new. Presently we are awaiting the decision by the Tiwanese as to what they plan to do about this situation. Again the President feels that the IOC should be the determining body in terms of rules for the games, not the host country. This situation has been discussed with HAK, however, there has been no communication with Peking or Trudeau.

FILMING TODAY:

The President is taping 4 messages, all short to various clubs and organizations should there be any inquiries.

Congratulated him on winning the nomination and said he looked forward to a good contest this fall. "I think we can keep it at a high level. We will give the American people a choice. Have a good day, Jimmy." It was a 2 min. conversation.

IOC:

Jim Cannon, as you know, is the staff member assigned to follow the Olympic situation. He gave the President a report on the latest developments last night. We understand that IOC has reversed itself and instead of agreeing to Canada's terms, has proposed a compromise to allow the Taiwanese to march in the parade on Saturday and carry their flag. We are waiting to see if the Canadian govt. accepts the compromise. Ron said this upholds the President's principle that a host country has no right to dictate terms of participation.
