MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

July 6, 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR: ROBERT ORBEN
VIA: GWEN ANDERSON
FROM: CHARLES McCALL
SUBJECT: DINNER FOR PRESIDENT FORD AT THE BRITISH EMBASSY, THURSDAY, JULY 8, 1976

The President and Mrs. Ford will be guests of honor at a dinner and reception given for them by Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Phillip at the British Embassy on July 8, 1976. The President and Mrs. Ford will arrive at the Embassy at 8:25 p.m. and will be met by the Ambassador and Lady Ramsbotham who will escort them upstairs via the right hand staircase which will have been used previously that evening only by the Queen, the Duke of Edinburgh, and the Royal Party. Note: the paintings hanging on the left and right hand staircases are of King George III and his wife, Queen Charlotte.

The President and Mrs. Ford will be greeted at the top of the stairs by the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, accompanied by the Minister and Mrs. Moreton. The President and Mrs. Ford, the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, and the Ambassador and Lady Ramsbotham will then go into the morning room where an official photograph will be taken and drinks will be served.

Following that brief pause, the six will proceed to the patio, form a receiving line, and greet approximately sixty guests prior to entering the Ballroom for dinner. Following dessert, the toasts will be proposed and the Anthems will be played. Note: there will be no remarks; the President will simply raise his glass and propose "The Queen." After coffee and liqueurs are served, Yehudi Menuhin and his young musicians will play for a quarter hour. The party at the top table will then retire prior to proceeding outside into the garden for the reception.

The approximately 1400 guests who will be attending the reception will already have assembled in the garden. When the Queen is ready to join them, a fanfare will be sounded, the French windows will open, and the Queen, the President, the Duke of Edinburgh, and Mrs. Ford will exit the Residence, proceed down the garden steps, and pause before walking slowly across the garden to admire the bronze sculpture by Henry Moore, titled "Vertebrae." Note: the Ambassador is quite proud of the work which Bob Hope, last week, titled "Sammy Davis, Jr.'s Cuff-links."

After viewing the sculpture, the party will split up so that the President, the Queen, Mrs. Ford, and Prince Phillip can greet as many guests as possible in approximately thirty minutes. The party will then reassemble at the steps to the Residence where they will watch the Royal Marines Band supported by the Senior 'Pipe' Major of the British Army Beat Retreat and play the Anthems. The party will then enter the Residence, the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh will say farewell to the President and Mrs. Ford at the top of the stairs in the entry hall, and the Ambassador and Lady Ramsbotham will accompany the Fords to their car.
