Mr. Ron Nessen
Press Secretary to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Nessen:

We are a monthly controlled circulation trade publication sent, at no cost to U.S. Armed Forces club and food service management personnel worldwide.

We work closely with military authorities in attempting to reflect official training materials, as well as to try to inspire these men and women to innovative ideas in food preparation and serving.

Consistent with this approach, we are most interested in preparing an article or series of articles on dining activities, food procurement and preparation, and food service methods utilized by the White House dining facilities. In the interest of accuracy, the final drafts of such pieces could be submitted to you for review prior to publication. We would, of course, be interested also in obtaining illustrative materials and photos.

We could work this out within whatever method you prefer--your staff to prepare--or our people to cover (the individuals concerned on my staff are honorably discharged, or honorably retired military personnel)

I believe such a feature would be of major interest to our military club and food service personnel and a source of both practical ideas and of inspiration to them.

Thank you for considering our request, we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

CLUB & FOOD SERVICE

MEMO FOR: RON JACKSON

FROM: Connie Gerrard C. Gerrard

I have contacted Mr. Ryan and told him you have no objections to doing this interview.

He said that the person who would most likely be in touch with you is:

Glenn Slood
Editor, Club and Food Service

L. F. (Pete) Rolen
Washington Office of Club and
Food Service

One of those two people will be in touch directly with you.

CONNIE:

There is no objection to doing this. I would like to suggest that it be done sometime in the fall and that possibly we have a preliminary interview with someone from Club and Food Service to determine the scope of the piece they would like to do.....
