TIME	ON	OFF	INTERVIEWER/INTERVIEWEE	COMMENT/DESCRIPTION	EVENT
8:45
8:46			end commercials Cronkite	On basis of tonight's vote Ford is in command though margin is very narrow - it is enough.
8:47				Abortion plank is not a Ford/Regan vote.
8:48			Paul Harley Chairman	of State Rep. party in Cal. supports Ford even though he worked on Regan's staff & likes Regan but Ford has performed well & is incumbent. This seems like favorable coverage. Pres. is coming back vs. a. v. Carter.
8:49
8:50			Regan Advisor Lake James Lake at Regan Hdq.	Regan was not surprised - talked to strong delegation who said they will support him tomorrow but who felt strongly against 16-C. VP spot still hot of this question.
8:51
8:52
8:53
8:54				Believe Regan will win on first ballot. Scare says Regan's strong delegation would be obvious - Lake calls this a "mistaken assessment".
8:55				Scare made assessment in his belief that Regan would get 30 in Miss. Calls James Lake position a "broad front" & "perhaps he would be accurate".
8:56			Cronkite
8:57			made Dent	Birch, VP & others are working on compromise to see if there will be a floor fight on anti-Kennedy plank. Thinks Regan has lost. Vote tomorrow will be the same or more favorable to Pres. Miss. was a big loss though. Did not know in advance if the what Miss. would do - depended on next sub vote.
8:58
8:59			Patricia Barnett	Time waster - The lead is upset; just like the delegation.
