

The original documents are located in Box 16, folder “Nicholson, William” of the Michael Raoul-Duval Papers at the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

Copyright Notice

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Michael Raoul-Duval donated to the United States of America his copyrights in all of his unpublished writings in National Archives collections. Works prepared by U.S. Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. The copyrights to materials written by other individuals or organizations are presumed to remain with them. If you think any of the information displayed in the PDF is subject to a valid copyright claim, please contact the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library.

For: Bill N.

9:35 a.m.
6/4/76

Tom Latimer:

Defense Contractors Association, for the most part, manufactures defense communications & electronic gear (radios, radar, etc.). They also produce some intelligence equipment - but very little.

H.

DONE

From:
Nicholson

MIKE R/D

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association

founded 1946

175 US and international corporations

11,000 members

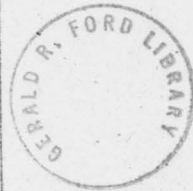

4,000 members attending meeting

charge - to foster preparedness and national security thru communication and electronic devices programs

luncheon address by Secretary of the Air Force, Thomas Reed.
on Tuesday, June 8 at 12:30 p.m. tel OX 7-7376
Army Chief of Staff Fred Weyand will address luncheon on Thursday.

Exec. V.P. of AFCEA is Lt. Gen George Pickett, USA Retd.
tel. 820-5028

Tom Lattimer
checking

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

June 8, 1976

MEMORANDUM FOR: BILL NICHOLSON
FROM: MIKE DUVAL Mike Duval
SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL PORTRAIT

Bill Colby advises me that the artist who painted his portrait, Lloyd Embry, would like to show his work to the President.

In addition to Colby's portrait, Embry did Schlesinger, Chet Hollifield and other Congressmen and military people.

Colby says he's good and thinks he might do a good job with the President.

