FILE FOR MEETING WITH PRESIDENT AT CAMP DAVID

Note: Raise with the President the need to seize the leadership vacuum concerning the Platform. As Senator Hruska pointed out, Ray's simplistic approach has created opposition from our camp and the Reagan camp. Someone is going to have to step in and take hold of this. The President's going to need a clear spokesman and leader in Kansas City the week before the Convention to guide us through this minefield. Otherwise, Reagan's going to come into town and seize the leadership role.

Realistically, the best choice to fill this function is Bill Simon, if we can control him.

I should talk to Cheney about this ahead of time. It's a serious problem and we have to move on it.

NOTES FOR MEETING WITH PLATFORM GROUP ON SATURDAY

1. Go over key elements of the Platform draft.
2. Go over issues and 28 controversial issues.
3. Cover procedures very carefully in terms of communications and our group back here.
4. Indicate that the people back here will have the capability to turn on a lobby effort, if necessary, with special interest groups, Cabinet who are back here, etc. This is a major resource that we should be prepared to take full advantage of.
5. We need to talk through the strategy of what we do if Reagan addresses the Platform Committee on August 12 or 13. This is a big problem which we should address carefully.
