SUBJECT:

Williamsburg Debate

It is my understanding that Governor Carter intends to arrive in Williamsburg around noon Friday and remain there overnight.

I further understand that there is a plan for students to gather in one of their auditoriums or halls (field house?) to watch the debate. It might be worthwhile looking into this so we can make an early decision whether or not the President should drop-by. We should expect Carter to make a call on this in the near future.

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THE PRESIDENT

FROM:

MIKE DUVAL

Mike

SUBJECT:

Last Debate

Jim Karayn, Executive Director of the League of Women Voters Debate Project, met with me today to suggest a possible change of format. This constitutes a proposal by the League of Women Voters and I have every reason to believe that the Carter people will endorse it.

Karayn recommends that we adopt the Vice Presidential debate format for your last debate with Mr. Carter. This would involve the following:

Opening statements -- 2 minutes (each)

Question -- 45 seconds

Answer -- 2 minutes, 30 seconds

Rebuttal -- 2 minutes, 30 seconds

Surrebuttal -- 1 minute

Closing statements -- 3 minutes (each)

The last debate would last 90 minutes.

If there is no change in the format, you will take the first question and also go first for the closing statements as a result of the coin toss which determined the order for the first debate. If the new format is adopted, Karayn has agreed that there will be a new coin toss to determine the order of the last debate.

Bill Carruthers and I both recommend that you reject this proposed change and stick with the format used in the first two Presidential debates. Our feeling is that the more direct the exchange is between you and Governor Carter the greater advantage Carter has because he is the challenger attacking an Incumbent's record. Also, the format we have been using gives you a better opportunity to communicate directly with the panel and the viewing public in a manner similar with your press conferences. This is a format which you are familiar with and we do not see the advantages in changing horses in mid-stream.

DECISION:

Stick with format used in first two debates, or

Accept League change, adopt VP format

FOR YOUR INFORMATION:

Also Jim Karayn asked for my "informal" reaction to the suggestion that there be a 5th debate on October 28 with the President and Dole vs. Carter and Mondale or just between the President and Mr. Carter. I indicated that this was probably out of the question due to the President's schedule commitments.

SUBJECT:

Last Debate

There is one suggestion which keeps coming up, primarily from people in Southern California. It is that you respond to a Carter "non-answer" to a question with the following statement:

"Mr. Carter has once again refused to answer the question. The question was

I yield the remaining time I have for this rebuttal to Mr. Carter if he will answer directly the question asked of him."

This isn't a bad idea, but obviously would only work if Carter did not expect it. The fact is that so many people have made this suggestion, I am certain Carter has been forewarned.

Accordingly, I recommend that you do not use this ploy.

Instead, we will provide you with a recommended response to Carter's refusal to answer the question.

MEMORANDUM FOR: DICK CHENEY
FROM: MIKE DUVAL
SUBJECT: Debate Preparation.

I think it would be useful for the President to spend two half hour sessions this afternoon, one on urban problems (to include crime, blacks, teenage unemployment, housing and the like), and the other on the economic situation.

The purpose of both sessions would be to discuss how the President presents his positions during the last debate. The purpose is not to give him new information.

I recommend the following be present as indicated below:

1. Urban problems. Jim Cannon, Mike Duval, Stu Spencer, Bob Teeter, and Doug Bailey.
2. Economic problems. Alan Greenspan, Mike Duval, Stu Spencer, Bob Teeter, and Doug Bailey.

Obviously, you may wish to sit in on these. I think the sessions should be held today during the late afternoon.
