

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 3, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Paul H. O'Neill, of Fairfax, Virginia, to be Deputy Director of the Office of Management and Budget. This will be the first time that this position will be filled by a nomination to the Senate. He succeeds Frederick V. Malek who was appointed February 2, 1973, and whose resignation was accepted on August 12, 1974.

Since 1973, Mr. O'Neill has served as Associate Director for Human and Community Affairs for the Office of Management and Budget. In 1971, he became Assistant Director of the Office of Management and Budget for Human Resources and General Government Programs after having served as Chief of the Human Resources Programs Division. From 1969 to 1970, he was Associate Division Director for Program Coordination in the Office of Management and Budget. He was Budget Examiner for the United States Bureau of the Budget from 1967 to 1969. From 1961 to 1966 he was a Systems Analyst with the Veterans Administration.

He was born on December 4, 1935, in St. Louis, Missouri, and received his B.A. degree from Fresno State College. He received his M.B.A. from Indiana University in 1966. He also did graduate work at Claremont Graduate School and George Washington University.

Mr. O'Neill is married to the former Nancy Jo Wolfe and they have four children. They reside in Fairfax, Virginia.
