THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of five persons to be members of the Boards of Visitors to the Service Academies, for terms expiring December 30, 1977. They are:

Board of Visitors to the U. S. Military Academy:

Carleton J. King, Saratoga Springs, New York, Attorney, Saratoga Springs, New York. He succeeds Laurence Lee, whose term has expired.

Joseph T. Power, Falls Church, Virginia, General President of the Operative Plasterers' and Cement Masons' International Association. He succeeds Leonard Henry, whose term has expired.

Board of Visitors to the U. S. Air Force Academy

John C. McDonald, Dallas Center, Iowa, Attorney, Dallas Center, Iowa. He succeeds Gordon Scherer, whose term has expired.

James E. Brown, Tremonton, Utah, Group Executive, Thiokol Corporation Aerospace Group. He succeeds Glenns Dumke, whose term has expired.

Board of Visitors to the U. S. Naval Academy:

G. Willing Pepper, Media, Pennsylvania, Chairman of the Board of the Institute for Cancer Research. He succeeds M. A. Cancelliere, whose term has expired.

The purpose of the Board is to inquire into the morale and discipline, the curriculum, instruction, physical equipment, fiscal affairs, academic methods, and any other matters relating to the academies which they choose to consider. All three boards consist of six members serving terms of three years.
