

POOL REPORT ON PRESIDENT'S VISIT TO TAYLOE HOUSE

The President, with Dr. Lukash at his side, ~~left~~ left North Portico entrance of White House about 6: 35 p.m. He walked down driveway, turned right on Pennsylvania, and then cut across street as ~~police held back traffic~~ police held back traffic. He spent 15 minutes inside Tayloe House, which was the site of a White House sponsored reception for members of the Michigan Association of Broadcasters. They are in town for annual dinner with much deleg ~~convention~~. On way back to White House he waved to a number of people as he walked ~~back~~ down Madison Ave. He stopped to shake hands with a number of ~~8th~~ 8th grade students from Urbana Junior High, Urbana, Ohio who were gathered in front of the ~~White House~~ driveway entrance when he returned.

~~The~~ The President remarked "Oh ~~Yes~~ Sure" when asked if he still enjoys shaking hands with ~~so~~ strangers as much as he did in the past. He returned to the White House ~~about~~ a little ~~before~~ before 7 p.m.

Dick Ryan

Detroit News