

NOVEMBER 19, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today reconvened Emergency Board 187, which was created on September 2, 1975, to investigate a dispute between carriers, represented by the National Railway Labor Conference and certain of their employees. The reconvening was requested by the Chairman of the National Mediation Board to solve a dispute reported over a disagreement on the meaning and intent of one of the recommendations contained in the Board's report that was submitted on October 10, 1975.
