

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The National Women's Basketball Team from the People's Republic of China is concluding its tour of the United States with the final game being played tonight at 8:00 p.m. at the Cole Fieldhouse at the University of Maryland with the Federal City College. So far on the tour the PRC Women's Team has won two games and lost two games. They defeated California State University of Fullerton in a game at Los Angeles and Queen's College in a game at New York City. The PRC Team lost to the U.S.A. National Women's Basketball Team in a game at Rochester, New York, and to Delta State University in a game at Memphis, Tennessee. The PRC Team will leave Sunday from Dulles Airport on the return flight to the PRC. The team toured the White House after meeting the President and Mrs. Ford.

#