

PRESS DEPARTMENT OF STATE

December 13, 1974

NO. 529

INFORMAL MEETING WITH THE PRESS BY
THE HONORABLE HENRY A. KISSINGER
SECRETARY OF STATE
AND
BRITISH FOREIGN SECRETARY JAMES CALLAGHAN
FOLLOWING THEIR BILATERAL MEETING
AT THE HILTON HOTEL
BRUSSELS
DECEMBER 13, 1974

QUESTION: Can you tell us anything about the meeting?

SECRETARY CALLAGHAN: Frank, friendly and constructive.

SECRETARY KISSINGER: We really reviewed the world situation and the Middle East, energy, Cyprus, some odds and ends of the NATO meeting and I would say this: it would seem to me complete agreement and a very friendly atmosphere.

QUESTION: Do you expect anything in the way of important developments on Cyprus today?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: No, not today.

QUESTION: Tomorrow?

SECRETARY KISSINGER: Not tomorrow, either.
