TO:

The Secretary of the Treasury The Secretary of Defense The Secretary of the Interior The Secretary of Commerce The Director of the Office of Management and Budget The Deputy Secretary of State The Administrator, General Services Administration

SUBJECT: Strategic and Critical Stockpile Planning Guidance

The President has directed a reassessment of the current Strategic and Critical Stockpile Planning Guidance (NSDM 203) in light of the strategic stockpile problem areas identified in response to NSSM 197/ CIEPSM 33 (Critical Imported Commodities), and Congressional criticism that current objectives are inadequate. The study should develop alternatives to the current planning guidance which take account of the problem areas and the Congressional criticism. The study should analyze:

-- the impact on the US budget and on commodity markets of changes in sales, acquisition, and inventory maintenance which would result from each alternative;

-- the adequacy and accuracy of the models employed to compute objectives;

-- the effects of factors such as austerity, substitution, and production expansion in establishing the stockpile objectives for specific materials;

-- shipping losses and reliability of suppliers;
