MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

By KBH NARA, Date 5/1/01

PARTICIPANTS: The President
Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of State and Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
Lt. General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME: Saturday, July 19, 1975
11:01 - 11:20 a.m.

PLACE: The Oval Office
The White House

Kissinger: On the 30th, you'll have breakfast with Giscard.

You could call on Kekkonen on Tuesday and have a private dinner.

President: Good. Kekkonen and a private dinner and a working session with Giscard the next morning.

Kissinger: Lunch I think with Karamanlis. That I think is all the time you will have.

Kekkonen is giving a dinner that night. On the 31st, breakfast with Demirel. The lunch could be quadripartite. A reception by you that morning. The rest of the evening is open.

On the 1st, breakfast with Wilson. Lunch maybe with Moro.

President: I will have legislative business. Let's keep the evenings as free as we can.

Kissinger: John Sherman Cooper wants you to meet Honnecker. I recommend against it.

SCHEDULE OF EXECUTIVE ORDER 11652
EXEMPTION CATEGORY 5 (b) (1,3)
AUTOMATICALLY DECLASSIFIED ON Imp. to Det.

President: How about Portugal and the CSCE?

Kissinger: There are some who say we shouldn't go because of Portugal. We did Portugal ourselves. If we can't keep a country west of the line to stay with us, that is our problem.
