MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS:

President Gerald R. Ford

George Shultz

Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Secretary of State and Assistant to the President for National

Security Affairs

Lt. General Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME:

Wednesday, September 17, 1975

3:21 - 3:42 p.m.

PLACE:

The Oval Office

SUBJECTS:

Shultz's visit to Europe: Economic Summit

Shultz: I met with Schmidt for about 10 hours, and Giscard. Wilson thinks the burden should be on those who say there shouldn't be a meeting, not vice versa. They are interested in a personal and deep discussion rather than a very broad one.

President: What participants will there be? What about Italy and Canada?

Shultz: They are thinking just of the five. They asked about Canada and I said it is our biggest trading partner. I would leave Italy to the Europeans. If they want it out, I would support that. Italy would just clutter the land-scape. With three people per country, that is about the maximum for the useful meeting. I said we needed the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Treasury. They agreed on three, but just who, they want to think about. On timing, I said it had to be this year. It looks like mid-November is about the latest possible.

Kissinger: It almost would have to be before Thanksgiving.

Schultz: On the location . . .

President: From a political point of view, it would be better to have it here. I am getting criticism from being out of Washington, but it is not serious.

DECLASSIFIED E.O. 12968, SEC. 3.5 Haran Profesional Duidel Kissinger: I doubt if Giscard would be willing to come here.

Schultz: If it happens, it would mark the reentry of France into the councils.

Kissinger I don't say it has to be in France, but with Giscard coming here next year, it would be tough.

Shultz: I tried the U.S. on them. Wilson will come of course; Schmidt is a bit reluctant and Giscard is negative.

President: We could have a joint announcement so there isn't one invitor. Let's get the schedule cleared.

Schutz: I need someone within the government to work with. Henry suggested Sonnenfeldt.

Kissinger It is interesting how much time they spent with George. It shows how seriously they take it.
