

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

~~SECRET/NODIS/XGDS~~

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS: President Ford
Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Sec. of State
Brent Scowcroft, Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs

DATE AND TIME: <sup>Sat</sup> ~~Friday~~, December <sup>4,</sup> ~~3,~~ 1976 ?

PLACE: Oval Office

Kissinger: Well, we did it in Japan [referring to results of Japanese election]. Frank Church should be proud of himself.

President: Was it really Lockheed?

Kissinger: Oh yes. It will gradually lead to a polarization between right and left. It'll be the first time Japan has needed a coalition.

Joe Kraft called. He said for the first six months they will compare Vance favorably with me and for 3-1/2 years they will scream "where is Kissinger/"

President: I know Vance well. He's a nice man but he doesn't have the vision or the drive to do the job.

Kissinger: I am deeply worried. Vance is the best of the lot and they can ride on our achievements for six months, but all the things they stand for will be a disaster. The deadlock in Geneva comes from our visiting Congressmen.

President: They think Diggs represents the new Administration.

Kissinger: Exactly.

On the Philippine base negotiations, there are so many stories, let me tell you. We had agreed in the government on $1 billion but had told the Philippines $900 million. Then there was a question about defenses, which we solved. They had asked for $2 billion but Romulo came to me in Mexico and accepted $1 billion -- but said it should all be military aid. I said that was impossible, and he said "okay, we'll accept your offer. Let's announce it right away." Then either Marcos hadn't been involved and reneged, or maybe the Democrats talked him out of it, or maybe Sullivan -- a fair-haired boy of Harriman -- did it. He has a scheme for REA and wanted to use the money for that.

On Andreotti, there is nothing unusual. Talk about the Communists, the IMF negotiations, and OPEC. I am going to NATO tomorrow. It'll be nothing unusual. I will spend one day in London on Rhodesia and that is all.

President: How is Rhodesia going?

Kissinger: Not well. The blacks are now arguing for a very defferent interim government. They oppose the Council of State. Instead they want a British commissioner and a Cabinet -- with whites having only five seats out of 25.

President: Smith will never buy it.

Kissinger: It would be suicide. But I am telling the South Africans to keep it going into February. Let them have the burden of a collapse. Diggs, Clark, etc., are making it impossible to get a reasonable settlement

K Well, we did it in Japan. Frank Church should be proud of himself.

P Was it really hushhush?

K Oh yes. It will gradually lead to a polarization but right & left. The 1st time Japan has needed a coalition.

K kept called. He said for 1st 6 mos. they will engage Vance favorably w/ me & for 3 1/2 years they will ~~screen~~ where is K

P I know Vance well. He's a nice man but he doesn't have a vision or a drive to do jobs.

K I am deeply worried. Vance is a host of a lot & they can ride on our achievements for 6 mos, but all the things they stand for will be a disaster. The bubble in Geneva came from our visiting Congressmen.

P They think Depps is a nice Admin.

K Exactly.

P I see Phil has ~~we got~~, there are so many stories but one tell you. We had agreed in a ~~quest~~ on 1 bid but had told Phil two mil. Then there was a question about expenses, which we solved. They had asked for 2 bid but ~~Reverend~~ came to me in Mexico & accepted at 1 bid - but said all mil. I said ~~myself~~ urging him to hurry up going there Jan.

if he said OK, will accept your offer - let's announce right away. Then either Marcos didn't hear or not + rejected, maybe Dennis ~~de~~ talked him out of it, or maybe Sullivan - a fair haired boy of Karrivian did it. He has a scheme for REA + wants to use a energy for that.

On Anheette, there is nothing unusual.
Talk about Cusco, EAF next, + OPEC.
I going to NATO tomorrow. Nothing unusual. I will spend a day in London on Rhodesia + that is all.

P. Dennis Rhodesia going.

K. Not well. The blacks are now arguing a very diff. interim govt. They oppose a council of state - instead a Brit commissioner + a cabinet - as/whites having
