THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 20, 1976

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you very much for your letter of September 28. You may be assured that the United States supports you and your government in your continuing efforts to maintain stability and progress. As Secretary of State Kissinger has told you during your recent meetings, we consider your country both an anchor of hope for stability and an example worthy of emulation.

We look forward to continued excellent relations in all fields. The United States is interested in further development of our economic and commercial ties. We support your objectives in economic development and other areas through our AID program, and we look forward to continued and expanded discussion on international issues. I am also pleased that we have been able to assist you in your efforts to upgrade your defense capability and thereby ease somewhat the burdens imposed by your difficult decision in this regard -- a decision the necessity of which we fully understand.

We are pursuing arrangements to fulfill your request for a fly past on Jamhuri Day, December 12. We will be communicating further with you on this matter shortly.

I was sorry to learn that you will not be able to come to the United States this November, but I appreciate your desire to do so and very much hope that such a visit will be possible in the near future. Although I have come to know you and your country better through the reports of Secretary Kissinger, I regret that I have not yet had the pleasure of meeting you personally. I hope that this will be rectified at an early date.

Sincerely,

Gerald R. Ford

His Excellency
Jomo Kenyatta
President of the Republic of Kenya

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT
FROM: Brent Scowcroft BS
SUBJECT: Proposed Reply to President Jomo
Kenyatta of Kenya

Ambassador Anthony Marshall has hand carried a letter to you from President Jomo Kenyatta. The letter warmly thanks you for the strong demonstrations of friendship the United States has manifested toward Kenya in the past few months. He refers to Secretary Kissinger's visits in May and September, to the credits we have approved for Kenya to purchase a squadron of F-5s and to the possibility of our providing a "fly past" of U.S. aircraft on Kenya's National Day, December 12.

On the last point, both Secretaries Kissinger and Rumsfeld have expressed support for doubling the number of planes for the fly past and the Pentagon is currently looking into the practicability of accomplishing this.

Finally, President Kenyatta expresses his appreciation for your invitation to him to visit the United States. He hopes to do so "someday."

I have attached a suggested text at Tab A. Doug Smith of Robert Hartmann's office has cleared the text of the proposed letter.

RECOMMENDATION:

That you sign the letter to President Kenyatta at Tab A.

SUBJECT: Presidential Correspondence: Proposed Reply to President Kenyatta of Kenya

Attached at Tab A is a proposed letter for President Ford to send to President Kenyatta in reply to the Kenya President's letter of September 28 (Tab B).

Per our telephone conversation, I have made no reference in President Ford's response to the number of planes for the proposed "fly past." I have, however, referred to it in the memo from you to President Ford - in case the matter is brought to his attention at a later time.

May I remind you that we hope to get the letter signed and turned over to Ambassador Marshall to hand carry back to Nairobi. Ambassador Marshall leaves here on Wednesday, October 20, in the early afternoon.

Doug Smith of Robert Hartmann's office has cleared the text of the proposed letter.

RECOMMENDATION:

That you forward to the President the memo at Tab I.

28th September, 1976.

Dear Mr. President,

In these past few months the United States has demonstrated a real friendship for Kenya that will be long remembered, and never forgotten by me and my people.

I have enjoyed and valued the talk I had with my friend, Dr. Kissinger, in May and again last week, here in Kenya. We have discussed not only the philosophical concepts but the practical aspects of maintaining stability in this part of the world. A strong, growing Kenya, in spirit as well as economic development, will - I hope - provide the framework for leadership and stability in the area.

Reluctantly, we have asked and you have given us credits to purchase a squadron of F-5s. We do not wish to build an aggressive force, but only to defend ourselves and be allowed to continue our Nation-building.

When your Secretary of State and I talked last week we discussed the possibility of the United States providing a six plane fly past on Jamhuri Day, December 12th, at our official ceremony. I would very much appreciate this if it is at all possible. It would further show where our friendship lies and discourage those who might want to make trouble.

I appreciate enormously the invitation you have extended to me through Dr. Kissinger, to visit the United States. I have discussed the matter with your Ambassador and expressed to him my strong wish to visit the United States - someday.

12.....

I look forward to the continued excellent relations between the Government and the people of our two countries, and wishing you personally every success in your forthcoming elections.

Yours sincerely,
