Dear Mr. President:

I have long been gratified by the tradition of close, friendly and constructive ties between Lebanon and the United States and I am confident that these relations can be strengthened for the future. It was my strong hope that our schedules would have permitted you to visit Washington. Although my schedule of travel abroad precluded a convenient meeting with you at this time, I look forward very much to the opportunity to confer with you in the future. I believe that such a meeting would be mutually advantageous and I therefore want to reextend my invitation to visit Washington at an early convenient time.

Mr. President, I also want to take this occasion to affirm to you the commitment of my Government to continue with its efforts to help bring about a just, durable and final settlement in the Middle East. I am keenly aware of the importance which you attach to this goal and what it will mean for Lebanon. It is my hope that our two nations will continue to consult closely in the pursuit of a permanent peace in the Middle East.

With warm best wishes and prayers for your successful journey home.

Sincerely,

His Excellency
Sleiman Frangie
President of the Republic of Lebanon

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: HENRY A. KISSINGER HK

SUBJECT: Letter to President Frangie of Lebanon

For a variety of reasons associated with the intense focus on the PLO appearance at the United Nations, President Frangie has not felt that he has received sufficient attention from US officials. This, combined with the fact that your schedule permitted receiving him only on Saturday -- when Frangie feels he must return to Lebanon tomorrow -- has evidently led the Lebanese to assume that we are not interested in them.

I believe a personal letter from you to Frangie, expressing regret at the inability to meet in Washington this weekend, would help assuage his feelings. It would represent a personal gesture on your part on the occasion of his visit and would relieve tensions before this situation becomes an irritant in US-Lebanese relations. Text cleared with Paul Théis.

RECOMMENDATION: That you sign the letter to President Frangie at Tab A so that it can be delivered to him in New York tomorrow (Friday, November 15).

MEMORANDUM FOR:

SECRETARY KISSINGER

FROM:

ROBERT B. OAKLEY ⁷²⁰

SUBJECT:

Presidential Letter to President Frangie of Lebanon -- Before his Departure from the US Today (11/15)

President Frangie is extremely upset over what he considers to have been shabby treatment on the part of the USG during his US visit, coming on top of repeated Israeli attacks on South Lebanon. Our embassy has now heard that Frangie has told his daughter in Beirut by phone that he has been poorly received, a report confirmed by my friends in his entourage. Whatever the merits, I strongly recommend that Frangie expeditiously receive a letter from the President as a personal gesture to help defuse tensions. A suggested text is at Tab A under a transmittal memo from yourself to the President. State concurs.

RECOMMENDATION: That you seek the President's signature on the letter to President Frangie in the attached package as quickly as possible. The text could be wired to New York.

Dear Mr. President:

I would like to take this occasion to extend to you my deepest personal thanks for the efforts of your Government in securing the release of Colonel Ernest Morgan. All Americans are greatly relieved at ^{his} safe return, and recognize the essential role played by the Government of Lebanon in attaining this end.

At the same time, I would like to thank you on behalf of the American people for your message of congratulations on the occasion of the One Hundred and Ninety-ninth Anniversary of the independence of the United States. Your kind and thoughtful message symbolizes the close friendship and mutual trust which have long characterized the relations between our peoples.
