

KIPKE TO TEST JOHNSON, FORD

Two Local Men on "Blue" Squad for Final Spring Grid Game.

CAPPON SELECTS SEARS

Ann Arbor, May 4.—More than 150 state scholastic football coaches and more than 2,000 state scholastic football players are going to get the low down on the Michigan grid system here Saturday.

Ford.

Coach Harry Kipke has invited all of the state coaches and players to a demonstration which will be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at Ferry field and for the regulation football game which will wind up spring practice in the stadium at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Kipke is going to lay his cards on the table and show his visitors how Michigan wins so many football games. He will even demonstrate a few new plays which Michigan has not used in the past but which will be used next fall.

The demonstration will consist of the individual work at each position, the way to block for punts, four ways to block the opposition punts, blocking for passes, the technique of punting and passing, the method of the Michigan defense and the new plays.

Jack Blott will give a short talk on the duties of the center, Cliff Keen on the guards, Franklin Cappon on the tackles, Benny Oosterbaan on end play, Weber and Kipke for the backfield.

The regulation game in the stadium will find most of the regulars as members of Kipke's Blue team with most of the promising new men as members of Cappon's Yellow team.

Sweet at Fullback.

Cappon's team will include Fuog at center, Sears and Hanshue at the guards, Wright and McGuire at the tackles, Castle and Rieck at the ends, with Fillinger at quarter, and Barnett at the halves

Kipke Counts Heavily Upon Ford As M Center This Fall

Michigan Coach Expects Grand Rapids Boy to Be Capable Successor to Bernard; Rates the Gophers Best in Conference

By HEINIE MARTIN

Michigan will have another good football team next fall, but don't count too strongly upon another conference championship.

That's the good word of Coach Harry Kipke, who was the featured speaker at the Michigan alumni banquet at Park Congregational church last night.

"Minnesota will have the strongest team in the Big Ten," declared the popular young Wolverine mentor. "The Gophers will be the team to beat and I certainly don't feel too sure that we'll have a team capable of whipping them."

And we ventured to say there probably would be other good teams in the conference.

"Yes, several of them will be strong. I look for Chicago to be the surprise team of the conference. They have some real material down there and they should go places next fall. Ohio State has some excellent material and if their coach will fit in with the scheme of things there, the Buckeyes will be plenty hard to beat. And you can look for a great improvement in that Illinois team."

Likes Jerry Ford

It was only natural that we mentioned the four Grand Rapids boys on the Michigan squad, now in spring training. Kipke, always the frank and honest speaker, delved right into their possibilities without mincing any words.

"Grand Rapids is certain to have at least one regular on the team and you know that's Jerry Ford. He is the ideal player for any coach to work with. I'd like to have 11 boys of his type every fall and I'd never worry again.

"Jerry has a marvelous competitive spirit. He has loads of courage, is always willing to work hard and never lets anything get him down. He will be my regular center. And I don't mind telling you that I look for him to play as good a game as Chuck Bernard did last year and I know that's saying something.

"Bernard excels Ford in only one department of play. That's in his passing. Bernard was the perfect passer. Jerry is a good passer, but not quite equal to Bernard, yet Ford has a wider playing range. He is just as good on offense and defense as Bernard and has an exceptionally fine football brain. I believe Ford will be the greatest center in the conference next fall. He is now scaling 202 pounds and has shown wonderful improvement."

It seemed that Kipke was truly enthused over Ford. He made certain he was impressing us with his opinion of Jerry's value. Then he talked of the other Grand Rapids boys.

Anent Tony Dauksza

"Tony Dauksza has excellent possibilities as a halfback, although right now he is on the verge of being ineligible because of his studies. Tony, however, would be a better player if he had more confidence in himself. He is inclined to be moody and that's something good football players shouldn't do. If Dauksza makes up his mind to work hard, he has an excellent chance of making the team. But it'll require hard work.

"Ernie Johnson, a former Union boy, has been showing up well at end and no doubt he'll see plenty of action next fall, even though I have several other exceptional prospects for the end berths. I like this boy Sears of Grand Rapids. He has shown a fine attitude in workouts and I wouldn't be surprised to see him get in at one of the guards. He has plenty of ability and if he keeps up his hard work, he may land a regular job."

Kipke is certain to miss some of his 1933 stars, we avowed.

"Sure I'll miss a lot of 'em, but the man I'll miss most is Everhardus. There was a better football player than he was credited with being. He'll be hard to replace and I don't know where I'm going to get a good quarterback. Whitey Wistert will be tough to replace, but I've got a lot of good line material, whereas my backfield prospects aren't exactly Newmans or Friedmans."

The Michigan coach went on to say that Hildebrand, husky lineman, had always wanted a chance at the fullback post and may get it this fall. Which would mean a shift of Johnny Regeezi to halfback. Such husky line veterans as Capt. Elect Tom Austin, Ward, Borgman, Baird, Jacobson, Viergever, Wright, Malashevich and others will insure the Wolverines of a heavy, experienced aggregation.

M ATHLETES ARE IN ACTION AGAIN

Pantlind of Grand Rapids Takes Hurdle Points at Meet in West Virginia.

ALL TEAMS GET BUSY

Ann Arbor, Feb. 13.—(A.P.)—With mid-year examinations completed, University of Michigan athletic teams will swing into action this week. Coach Chuck Hoyt's track squad which promises to be the strongest to represent the Maize and Blue in recent years will hold a dual meet with Chicago at Chicago Saturday. The basketball team will play at Indiana Monday night and entertain Iowa at Yost field house Saturday night.

Four games are scheduled for the hockey team during the week, Michigan Tech Monday and Tuesday and Wisconsin Friday and Saturday. All these games will be played at home. The Michigan wrestling team will entertain Ohio State Saturday, and the swimming team will go to Northwestern Friday evening and meet Chicago Saturday night at Chicago.

Track Coach Pleased.

Coach Hoyt is well pleased with Michigan's showing at the West Virginia relays last Saturday. Despite the fact that the Wolverines were almost out of training because of examinations, several noteworthy performances were turned in. Ned Turner won the half mile, with Ed Lemon of Michigan second. Doc Howell was first in the mile run. Hawley Egleston and Boyd Pantlind finished one-two in both the high and low hurdles. Willis Ward cleared 6 feet 3 1/2 inches in the high jump with little practice and was second to Ralph Metcalfe in the finals of the 70-yard dash at world record time of 7 seconds flat. Al Blumenfeld satisfied his coach with a fourth place in the shot put. Cass Kemp was fourth in the 70-yard dash.

Hoyt has not decided yet which athletes will be taken to the Chicago meet, but Ward, Egleston, Turner, Lemon, Doc Howell, Blumenfeld, Kemp and Pantlind are certain to take part.

Behind the Scenes at The Michigan Prep Track Meet

Charlie Hoyt, Wolverine Coach, Lands Boyd Pantlind; Predicts Brilliant Future for G. B. Boy; a Few Notes on the Events

By W. B. WOLFAN

Around the interested spectators in Michigan State college stadium watching the state high school track meet Saturday afternoon was Charlie Hoyt, coach of the University of Michigan's Big Ten champions. With studies keeping the Wolverines away from the I. C. 4-A meet in Cambridge, Hoyt took a day off and was on hand to look over the pick of Michigan high school talent in action.

We left the scene of the high jump still in a daze trying to figure out points in fifts and 44ths and took a breathing spell between events to approach the Michigan Athletic Union. Mr. Hoyt, haven't seen the Indian relays in this last year? we read in the program of yours. We've been reading the same thing, the state meet will attest to only too sorrowfully.

The state high school meet is one of the most colorful athletic spectacles of the year for the high schools. The Michigan State stadium is an ideal place to hold the meet. The spectators were busy, however, running for cover and then returning to the stands several times during intermittent showers. As C. R. Forsythe, state high school athletic director, remarked, "the meet's official now, it's rained." Which the coaches who remember the weather in past years at the state meet will attest to only too sorrowfully.
