Dear Betty,

A four-volume set of the books from WOMEN AND THE CONSTITUTION has previously been sent to your Library, but I wanted you to have these personal copies, as well.

I hope you agree that these books are a culmination of one of our most important goals in convening the conference -- a scholarly documentation of the roles women played in the development of the Constitution. Judging from the demand for the books in the first few months since publication, I think we will also achieve another of our goals -- the wide dissemination of this information.

While the distribution of these materials represents the end of the program, I believe the work with respect to women's issues will continue at a pace perhaps invigorated by our joint efforts. Once again, I am most grateful for everything you did to make WOMEN AND THE CONSTITUTION so successful.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Rosalynn Carter

Dear Betty,

I enjoyed being with you, and we did get a lot of publicity for our cause. Hopefully, it will help.

Next time will coordinate our clothes!

Dear Betty,

It was a beautiful evening
with so much love and affection for you. And you deserve all the honors and accolades.

The Betty Ford Center is impressive. I am so glad I got to see it. I had a chance to meet with some of the children, which was touching.
What satisfaction you must get knowing how many people's lives you help make better —
and not just the ones in treatment, but their families.

including the precious children.
you have my greatest admiration.

Love to Jerry,

Fondly,

Rosalynn Carter
