Dear Mr. Adams:

This is to acknowledge and thank you for your letter to President Ford which you directed to me. Your thoughtful words and dedication are very much appreciated and I know the President will also be grateful to you for taking the time to write.

We are, of course, deeply disappointed that President Ford and Senator Dole were not elected and that we did not increase our numbers in the Congress. Instead of dwelling on those results, however, we must be determined to do a better job of getting our message of personal and economic freedom to the people. We must more accurately convey our concern about people and their well-being in order to convince the American voter that Republican principles do represent their basic goals and ideals.

Your loyalty and devotion to the Republican Party are a source of inspiration and encouragement. The effort and support you and other Hispanic-Americans gave to President Ford and other Republican candidates are very commendable and I want you to know that it is greatly appreciated.

With warmest best wishes.

Sincerely,

Mary Louise Smith

The President of the United States

Dear Mr. President:

We are very sorry that our campaign was not successful. You were the best man, the most honorable, decent, intelligent and generous person.

The Americans know this well, even the President Elect, Mr. Carter.

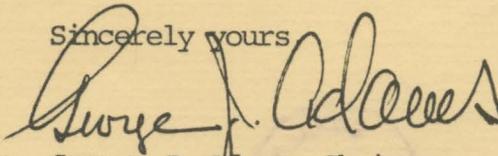

We, Hispanic-Americans of California, made a sincere, honest and energetic effort to win the election. We won California but we should have won the country, as well.

In our midst are Republicans, Independents and some Democrats who felt like us, Cubans, Mexican-Americans, Latin-Americans, Filipinos, Black-Hispanics who will always remember how enthusiastic we were for our President's campaign in 1976, the year of the Bicentennial.

We give you our most sincere thanks for your efforts in getting elected as well as the love, faithfulness and lovely participation of Mrs. Betty Ford, our First Lady.

My best regards to you and your family. With all sincerity and deepest feeling of gratitude for all you have done as President of our country in one of the most difficult and trying times.

Sincerely yours

George J. Adams, Chairman
Republican Hispanic Assembly of California
California Hispanic-Americans for President Ford
